

new loans expires March 31 of this year. I recommend that Congress extend until December 31, 1924, the time during which loans can be made by the corporation and grant

FIFTY BILLION CIGARETTES ARE SMOKED IN YEAR

Chicago, Jan. 22.—More than fifty billion cigarettes were smoked in the United States during 1923, according to the figures that were made public today by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This is more than twice the number of cigarettes smoked in 1922, according to the figures made public by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The increase in the consumption of cigarettes is due to the fact that the average man now smokes about 15 cigarettes a day, whereas in 1922 he smoked about 10 cigarettes a day. The increase in the consumption of cigarettes is also due to the fact that the average woman now smokes about 10 cigarettes a day, whereas in 1922 she smoked about 5 cigarettes a day. The increase in the consumption of cigarettes is also due to the fact that the average child now smokes about 5 cigarettes a day, whereas in 1922 he smoked about 2 cigarettes a day. The increase in the consumption of cigarettes is also due to the fact that the average man now smokes about 15 cigarettes a day, whereas in 1922 he smoked about 10 cigarettes a day. The increase in the consumption of cigarettes is also due to the fact that the average woman now smokes about 10 cigarettes a day, whereas in 1922 she smoked about 5 cigarettes a day. The increase in the consumption of cigarettes is also due to the fact that the average child now smokes about 5 cigarettes a day, whereas in 1922 he smoked about 2 cigarettes a day.

AT THE MOVIES

THE FLAME

Movie 11:15. The story of a man who falls in love with a woman who is a thief. The story is told in a very interesting and dramatic way. The movie is a very good one and is well worth seeing.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Movie 11:15. The story of a man who falls in love with a woman who is a thief. The story is told in a very interesting and dramatic way. The movie is a very good one and is well worth seeing.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE BY ADVERTISEMENT

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, as mortgagee, will sell at public auction, on the 26th day of January, 1924, at 10 o'clock a. m., the premises described in the mortgage of record in the County of Burleigh, State of North Dakota, Book 14, Page 40, to-wit: The West Half of the Northwest Quarter of Section 34, Township 33 North, Range 57 West, County of Burleigh, State of North Dakota, containing 40 acres of land, more or less, together with the improvements thereon, to-wit: A one-story house, a barn, and a well. The mortgage is held by the undersigned, as mortgagee, and is subject to the terms and conditions thereof. The sale will be made at the Court House in the City of Bismarck, North Dakota. The undersigned, as mortgagee, reserves the right to cancel this advertisement at any time.

NOTICE OF REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE BY ADVERTISEMENT

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, as mortgagee, will sell at public auction, on the 26th day of January, 1924, at 10 o'clock a. m., the premises described in the mortgage of record in the County of Burleigh, State of North Dakota, Book 14, Page 40, to-wit: The West Half of the Northwest Quarter of Section 34, Township 33 North, Range 57 West, County of Burleigh, State of North Dakota, containing 40 acres of land, more or less, together with the improvements thereon, to-wit: A one-story house, a barn, and a well. The mortgage is held by the undersigned, as mortgagee, and is subject to the terms and conditions thereof. The sale will be made at the Court House in the City of Bismarck, North Dakota. The undersigned, as mortgagee, reserves the right to cancel this advertisement at any time.

NOTICE OF REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE BY ADVERTISEMENT

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, as mortgagee, will sell at public auction, on the 26th day of January, 1924, at 10 o'clock a. m., the premises described in the mortgage of record in the County of Burleigh, State of North Dakota, Book 14, Page 40, to-wit: The West Half of the Northwest Quarter of Section 34, Township 33 North, Range 57 West, County of Burleigh, State of North Dakota, containing 40 acres of land, more or less, together with the improvements thereon, to-wit: A one-story house, a barn, and a well. The mortgage is held by the undersigned, as mortgagee, and is subject to the terms and conditions thereof. The sale will be made at the Court House in the City of Bismarck, North Dakota. The undersigned, as mortgagee, reserves the right to cancel this advertisement at any time.

JOHNSON TO COME LATER

Fargo, Jan. 22.—Owing to work concurrent with his senatorial duties, Senator Hiram Johnson, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, will not be able to speak at Fargo on January 29, as originally planned. O. M. Hector, North Dakota campaign manager, announced today. Mr. Johnson will appear in this state for a series of addresses at a later date, Mr. Hector said. It was also announced that Senator Norbeck of South Dakota will address several meetings in North Dakota in the near future on behalf of the California Senator.

DR. R. S. ENGE

Chiropractor
Consultation Free
Lucas Bldg. Bismarck, N. D.

1000 Rooms Each 7th and 8th	Rates
44 rooms	at $2.50
174 rooms	at $3.00
292 rooms	at $3.50
395 rooms	at $4.00
440 rooms	at $4.50
and up

Enjoy Your Stay in

CHICAGO

In the Heart of the Loop

Convenient to all theaters, railway stations, the retail and wholesale districts, by living at the

MORRISON HOTEL

THE HOTEL OF PERFECT SERVICE

Clark and Madison Sts.

The Home of the Terrace Garden

CHICAGO'S FINEST RESTAURANT

BISMARCK MAN HURT IN SOUTH

H. C. Rhud of Bismarck, who is spending the winter motoring through various parts of Florida, was injured in an automobile accident, according to the DeFuniak Springs, Florida, Breeze of Jan. 17. Mr. Rhud turned his car off the road to avoid a collision but was struck by another car. His head was wedged between the wind shield and top and he was extricated with difficulty. He was given medical attention, however, and soon will be able to travel again. Mr. Rhud has been at Scott's Bay, 40 miles from Marianna.

Business First

SHE—I believe you'd rather be inside playing cards with papa than out here with me.
HE—Not at all, darling. But we must have the money to get married with.—Goblin

Women teachers in the United States outnumber the men 6 to 1

"DIAPEPSIN" ENDS STOMACH MISERY, GAS, INDIGESTION
Instantly! Stomach corrected! You never feel the slightest distress from indigestion or a sour, acid, gassy stomach, after you eat a tablet of "Dipsepsin." The moment it reaches the stomach all sourness, flatulence, heartburn, gases, palpitation and pain disappear. Druggists guarantee each package to correct digestion at once. End your stomach trouble for few cents.

DeMORSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS
DRIVE out the body poisons. Keep well. Keep the system active. Relieve constipation.
Favored For Fifty Years
36 PILLS 25¢

LUMBER FACTS
NO. 4
One-fifth of the Nation's area will grow trees, and nothing else. Keep the fires out of the forest lands and America will always have enough trees to provide good lumber at reasonable cost.

SEE CHEVROLET FIRST FOR ECONOMICAL TRANSPORTATION

Use Lumber
NATIONAL LUMBER MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION

A PREDICTION
The increase of prosperity in Burleigh County will be proportionate to the increased number of good dairy cows on Burleigh County farms.
This is the prediction of the City National Bank for 1924, and because this bank seeks in every way to make its efforts count for increased prosperity, it can be counted on for sincere interest and enthusiastic co-operation in the cause of more and better dairy cows.
Come in and talk dairying with us. You will always be welcome.
The CITY NATIONAL BANK
BISMARCK, N. DAKOTA
P. C. Remington, President.
J. A. Graham, Vice Pres. & Cashier.
C. M. Schmler, Asst. Cashier.

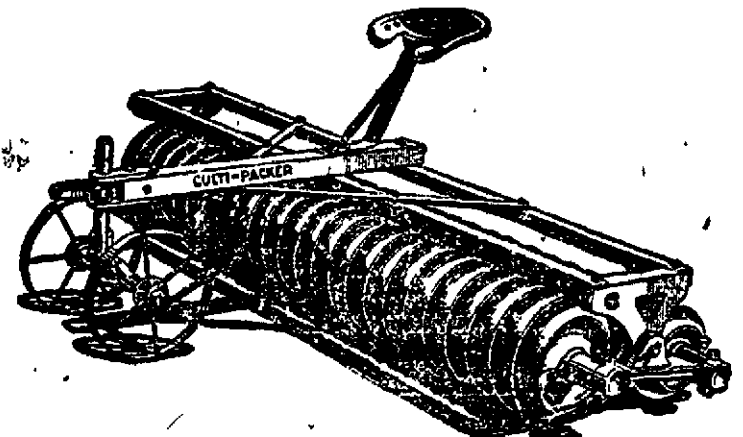

CORN, CORN The Yellow Corn
Solves The Problems for the North Dakota Farmer.
—All wealth originates in the soil—
All Good Styles and Prices in Men's Wear originate at Klein TOCCERY

Do You Dress for Others or Yourself?
In business it is even more important to dress for yourself than for others. If yours is an occupation where appearances count, you will always be more conscious of your own clothes than anyone you meet.
The sense of assurance in any company that good clothes give has a business value all out of proportion to its cost. There is many a successful business man who will tell you that the most profitable investment he ever made was in good clothes.
Our custom tailored clothes made by our own tailors here in Bismarck plus our personal service assure you satisfaction.
S. E. BERGESON & SON
Custom Tailoring Ready-to-Wear Clothing

$295 F.O.B. DETROIT

Starter and Demountable Rims $85.00 Extra
Why You Should Order Your Ford Car Now
Considering that, as spring approaches, retail buying will become more and more active, it is certain that there will be a greater demand for Ford Cars, Trucks and Tractors this spring than ever before.
In view of this situation, the only way in which you can be sure of obtaining delivery of a Ford Car, Truck or Tractor this coming spring or summer, is to place your order immediately.
If you do not wish to pay cash for your car, you can arrange for a small payment down and easy terms on the balance. Or you can buy on the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.
See the Nearest Authorized Ford Dealer
Ford Motor Company
Detroit, Michigan

Lincoln Ford Fordson
CARS-TRUCKS-TRACTORS
To the People of Bismarck and Visitors to the N. D. State Corn Show We Will Keep OPEN HOUSE
Tuesday - Wednesday - Thursday
Special features each evening including the World Famous Pendleton, Oregon Round-Up Moving Pictures. We are displaying all the New Model Ford cars featuring the Tudor Sedan equipped with
FIRESTONE BALLOON TIRES
COPELIN MOTOR COMPANY
201 Broadway. Bismarck, N. D.

McCormick-Deering Tillage Tools

The Better the Seedbed The Bigger the Yield
This year — as always before — making the seedbed will call for fast and thorough work. The planting season will roll around with unalterable certainty, but no matter how few the days between plowing and planting you can have a profit-building seedbed by using efficient equipment.
McCormick-Deering Tillage Implements combine the three essentials—good work, long life and convenience. They are mechanically correct because their construction is based on ninety years of practical farm and factory experience. They are priced on the basis of economical quantity production, and as an investment they offer you attractive returns.
McCormick-Deering Tillage Implements
Tractor Disk Harrows
Horse Disk Harrows
Dunham Culti-Packers
Reversible Disk Harrows
Spring-tooth Harrows
Open-end Peg Harrows
Closed-end Peg Harrows
Flexible Peg Harrows
Wood Bar Harrows
Invest in a Dunham Culti-Packer. Use it on winter rye to press back the frost-heaved soil around the roots. Use it on your seedbeds. It firms the subsoil, leaving a loose surface. Use it back of your drill. It gives every seed a quick start.
WRITE FOR CATALOG OR CALL ON YOUR LOCAL RESIDENT DEALER.
International Harvester Co.
OF AMERICA
INCORPORATED
BISMARCK, N. DAK.

MANY NAMES SUGGESTED IN CONGRESS RACE

Thomas Hall Says He Will Be Candidate in the June Primary Election

Candidates and prospective candidates for Congress from the Second North Dakota district, regardless of whether George M. Young returns from that position, are daily becoming more numerous.

Thomas Hall, Secretary of State, has announced sometime ago that he would be a candidate in the expected special election, and today that he would enter the June primary for Congress. Mr. W. Duffy, deputy secretary of state for the last six years, said that if Mr. Hall enters the primary for Congress he will be a candidate for Secretary of State.

Ed Smith of Ellendale has announced himself as a candidate for Congress. P. S. Henry of Bismarck, formerly of Valley City, will run unless forbidden by a physician. A boom has been started for Frank L. Johnson of Anamoose. Others regarded as possible candidates for legislative endorsement are C. S. Buck of Jamestown, Daniel Prezler of Medina, Senator J. E. Davis of Grand Forks and Victor Wardrop of Devils Lake. The Litchville Bulletin has launched a boom for A. P. Hanson, former speaker of the house of representatives.

Announced candidates on the league side include M. C. Freerks of Jamestown and Joseph Coghlan of Bismarck. Gerald Nyle of Cooperstown is considered a likely candidate and others mentioned include former Justice of the Supreme Court R. H. Graves, Ole Olson of New Rockford, J. C. Miller of Bottineau, W. J. Church of Benson county.

LEAGUE BODY IN MEETING

County Convention Gets Under Way Here Today

The Burlington county convention of the Nonpartisan League, which is to select delegates to the state convention which convenes here on February 6, got under way today in Baker hall. When the convention was called to order by County Chairman H. W. Voight shortly before 11 o'clock about 30 delegates were present out of the 70 authorized for the convention, but it was expected more would be in for the afternoon and evening session.

W. O. Kell, former representative, was named temporary chairman and C. E. Boe temporary secretary. A credentials committee was named after the convention assembly, and a recess was then taken until all credentials could be examined.

NORTH DAKOTA 'OFFICIALLY' IN CORN BELT

(Continued from page 1)

Option of one year, 1920, have been chosen for many years past.

"These things keep up the soil fertility, keep down the weeds, keep the farmers employed the year round and guarantee a living income to the man who shows reasonable business management and thrift."

"Flax, potatoes and sugar beets in different localities fit into this rotation system."

Wheat Leading Crop

"Naturally wheat will always be one of the leading cash crops of this state. Perhaps the major crop, but for a state that needs some of these other things so badly it is most fortunate that progress in this direction has been so slow. It may be that the distressing wheat year of 1923 will be pointed to by the coming generations as the greatest blessing that ever happened to the state of North Dakota."

"In the United States we are producing less than one-half of the wool we manufacture, a year little more than one-third. Hence if our sheep population was doubled we would still be importing wool and if the sheep took the place of some of that expensive wheat surplus we would be killing two birds with one stone, keeping our money at home instead of sending it to the southern hemisphere for wool, and simplifying our wheat market situation."

Wool a Good Product

"With the appeal the farmer now has at Washington it seems unlikely that any tariff reduction will be made soon on such products as wheat, flax, wool and mutton lambs. I think most people believe that there is enough wool left to prevent the loss from being rebbed by putting our culture in worse position than it is now."

"With the tariff (31 cents a pound on scoured wool and 5 cents a pound on dressed lamb) our wool sales from 35 to 40 cents a pound, depending on quality and absence of dirt, or about $3 to $3.50 a head for good

SHE DANCES IN ED WYNN'S SHOW

It requires ten pounds of chocolate composition to cover the entire body of Estelle Penning at each performance in this clever dancer's appearance in the "Ball of the Princess," which is a feature with Ed Wynn. "The Perfect Fool" coming to the Auditorium Theater for one performance only Friday night, January 25th.

ewes. Lambs in Chicago a head last season ranged from over 15 cents early in July down to 13 1/2 and 13 1/2 cents later in the season.

"I know of one man who shipped a train load of lambs from the Cascades mountain in Washington early last July which netted him a 15 cent shipping point after paying all freight and feeding and commission charges $10.58 per head. His tops brought $15.10 per 100 pounds and weighed over 80 pounds. He sold his wool for 78 and 40 cents and his ewes made over 100 per cent lamb crop and gave him a gross return of over $13 for every ewe."

MANDAN NEWS

Mandan Schools At New Mark

The Mandan public schools reached a new high attendance figure this week, the beginning of the second semester, when several new pupils entered the three grade schools and high school. Today the attendance stands at 791 and before the end of the week should reach 800.

The 791 pupils are divided as follows: High school 200, grammar school 119, Central school 242, Syndicate 125, Center 67.

On Monday thirteen pupils were graduated from the grammar department and entered as freshmen in the high school. They are: Bernice Anderson, Carol Brown, Ruth Davidson, Stella Herrmann, Loren Jurek, James Martin, Marjorie Rhamer, Natalie Shaw, George Anderson, Joseph Baron, Lawrence Knoff, Clyde Stain, Lloyd Witte. Florence Bagwell of Sanger, also entered the high school with this class.

LICENSE ISSUED

A marriage license was issued by County Judge Shaw to Alex Kupper and Miss Julia Laney, both of Mandan.

ENTERS HOSPITAL

Roadmaster L. B. Quinn left for St. Paul to enter the Northern Pacific general hospital. Mr. Quinn has been in poor health for some time and may undergo surgical treatment either at the St. Paul hospital or at Rochester.

JAWS BROKEN

John Sudy, young farmer of south-west of the city, suffered a badly fractured left lower jaw yesterday morning while assisting in starting a cold gas engine at his home. The crank was thrown from the flywheel when the engine backfired and struck him with full force.

Too Late To Classify

FOR SALE—One 8-3 x 10-6 rug, one dresser. Phone 479. 1-23-24

FOR RENT—1 double room, can be furnished for light housekeeping. 313-4th St. Phone 627R. 1-23-24

FOR RENT—Furnished room, Mrs. F. J. Matschek, 310 Ave. B. 1-23-24

YOUNG LADY will take care of children, afternoon and evening. References furnished. Phone 74. 1-23-24

See "The Drivin' Fool" at The Capitol Theatre Friday and Saturday. It is the fastest six reels of film ever put on a screen.

LAW AND ORDER DAY IS NAMED FOR N. DAKOTA

Governor Urges That Churches, Clubs, Lodges Unite in Constitution Study

PROCLAMATION ISSUED

Observance of Law and Order day in North Dakota on January 27, as a proclamation which calls upon ministers to preach sermons on the subject, urges schools, clubs, lodges and other public meetings to devote time to the study of the constitution of the state and nation, the Declaration of Independence, Washington's Farewell Address and others in harmony with the spirit of the day.

Citizens of the state are asked by the Governor to rally around the spirit of the day, the constitution and law, with especial reference to prohibitory laws. The proclamation follows:

Law and Order Day

WHEREAS, the friends of good government and of orderly progress have been saddened by the frequent and vicious assaults, from without and within, upon our form of government, our constitution, and the laws solemnly and deliberately enacted by the people, without our borders, and the desire to overthrow our form of government and to engage in various propaganda for that purpose, or from those at home who profess to believe in our form of government, but who, nevertheless, deliberately disregard and flagrantly violate the constitution and the laws of our country on the theory that they are not bound to obey and respect such enactments unless personally favored by them at the time of adoption;

WHEREAS, There has been a tendency in recent years to lessen the emphasis upon individual responsibility for right civic conditions and upon the need of developing strength of character, and we have urged so largely upon the mere passage of laws prohibiting certain acts without seeking to develop and enlighten public conditions which both yields obedience to law and actively sustains the enforcement thereof; and

WHEREAS, a nation-wide aggressive campaign has been conducted jointly by those who are addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors and habit-forming drugs and those who profit by the traffic therein, to undermine the spirit of respect for legitimate civic obedience to law and constituted authority; and

WHEREAS, The Law and Order Union has requested that a day be set aside for the purpose of renewing our faith in and allegiance to our constitution, laws, and form of government and for the purpose of promoting law and order in the land;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, R. A. NESTOS, Governor of the State of North Dakota, do hereby set aside and designate

SUNDAY, JANUARY 27, 1924.

LAW AND ORDER DAY

and do hereby urge that from every pulpit in our state, sermons be preached, emphasizing the teachings of the Word of God as the true basis for obedience to law and constituted authority, and that during the days of that week a portion of the time in schools, clubs, lodges, and other public meetings be devoted to the study of the constitutions of state and nation, the Declaration of Independence, Washington's Farewell Address, and others in that series of immortal documents upon which our institutions are founded and in harmony with the spirit of which our institutional development has progressed, and that our whole citizenship be encouraged to respect constituted authority, to obey the laws, to help preserve order and to give active aid to those whose duty it is to enforce law and thereby contribute our share to the development of higher civic ideals and the establishment of conditions that shall promote the welfare and happiness of our people.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the state of North Dakota, at the Capitol at Bismarck, this 21st day of January, A. D. 1924.

R. A. NESTOS (Signed)
Governor

Locals Beat Mandan Bowlers

Bismarck bowlers defeated Mandan bowlers at Mandan last night. The line-up and scores:

Bismarck	Mandan
Christensen 199 159 181	Singleton 178 219 166
Mike Schreiner 200 232 159	Peterson 208 156 177
Geo Schubert 179 187 154	Tobin 167 165 179
Hensler 145 151 181	Baumgartner 153 137 174
Joe Schneider 137 191 180	Pfeiffer 134 190 177
Totals 860 910 855	140 867 807
	Totals 840 867 807

See "The Drivin' Fool" at The Capitol Theatre Friday and Saturday. It is the fastest six reels of film ever put on a screen.

FIANCE KILLED

Alfred San Francisco newspaper woman, has received confirmation reports that her fiancé, Governor of Yucatan, Mexico, has been executed by rebels.

BISMARCK MAN IS HONORED

James Johnston, John A. Graham, and today was elected grand secretary of the North Dakota State Royal Arch Masons, to succeed Walter T. Stockwell of Fargo, who was elected grand secretary Bismarck was selected in the 1923 convocation place.

DICKINSON LAND OFFICE STRICKEN OUT

Washington, Jan. 23.—The house cleared today from the interior department appropriations bill a section providing for abolishment of 21 land offices on July 1.

An amendment was adopted which would postpone from July 1 until June 1, 1925, consolidation of the land offices of register and receiver at several land offices, including Rapid City, S. D.

The land offices specified in the act are stricken out, including Cass Lake, Minn. and Jackson, Miss., and Dickinson, D.

The amendment which would continue in operation the 21 land offices until the committee in charge of the bill should be abolished was offered by Representative Clark Democrat, Florida, and was adopted 143 to 100. Representative Smith, Republican, Oregon, offered the amendment to postpone consolidation of offices at the 14 other points. The vote was 99 to 87.

The house voted contrary to the recommendation of the committee which

KIWANIS CLUB COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

President Birdzell Appoints Members to Head Bodies For This Year

Members of the Kiwanis club committees for the ensuing year have been named by President L. E. Birdzell. Officers of the club, the directors and members of committees follow:

The following is a list of the officers and directors of this club:

Scott Cameron, Immediate Past President; J. F. Birdzell, President; N. O. Rambo Vice President; J. A. Graham, Treasurer; Eric A. Thorberg, Secretary; J. O. Arneson, Trustee.

The above, together with the following names, constitute the Board of Directors:

John Parkinson, W. H. Webb, M. B. Gilman, A. P. Lohr, W. E. Cole, Law, B. Cox, Spencer Boise.

The following committee have been named for the coming year:

- Attendance
Beck, Tillotson, Cox, Dewall
- Business and Methods
Corwin, Runyan, Dietz, Harris, Sorenson
- Classification
Cole, Bowman, Knowles, Harris, Thorberg
- Education
Cameron, Robertson, Ryerson, Wagner, Baker, Johnson, Robinson
- Finance
Lohr, Graham, Russ, Stackhouse, Sorenson
- Grievance
Brandt, Knowles, Cox
- House
Smith, Wachter, Gettelman, Breslow, Graham
- Inter Club
Arneson, Murphy, Thorberg, Wenzel, McGittigan
- Laws and Reg.
Shaffer, Janssens, Myhre, Wallace, Stackhouse
- Music
Boise, Soren, Miller, Bestrom
- Program
Lumby, Parkinson, Byrne, Russ, Baker, Arneson
- Publicity
Neal, Gilman, Moule, Tillotson, Melton
- Reception
Tracy, Murphy, Gettelman, Gilman, Bertsch
- Public Affairs
Ramstad, Johnson, Slagg, Webb, Jones

Democrats in Mandan Endorse Holt's Action

Mandan, N. D., Jan. 23.—An enthusiastic group of Democrats representing the southwestern part of the state met in Mandan last night for an unanimous approval given to the action of Henry Holt, secretary of the Democratic state central committee, in issuing a call for a meeting of the committee at Valley City for Friday, January 25, following the return of the train from Woodstock to call the committee together. It is Holt's charge.

J. P. Campbell, veteran Democrat, presided and gave a rousing address on the prospects of a Democratic national victory.

Reports given out at the meeting indicated that all members of the committee from this section will be in attendance at Valley City and several voiced the opinion that selection of a new chairman should be necessary as a result of the alleged announcement on the part of Woodstock and Perry to deliver the Democratic party machine into the hands of the Bloom-Milne league faction.

GRAND LODGE IN SESSION

Fargo, Jan. 23.—With an attendance of about 100 the 35th annual convention of the Grand Chapter, I. A. M. of North Dakota opened at the Masonic temple here.

Officers of the order said that this attendance is almost double that of any of the previous convocations.

All grand officers were present with one exception. There were six P. M. Grand High Priests and 25 of the 28 chapters in the state were represented.

Out of the state visitors included West Excelsior, Companion W. B. Lawrence, Most Excellent Zed and R. E. H. G. Moulton, grand scribe P. of the grand chapter of Manitoba. Both are of Winnipeg.

The usual routine business, including most of the address of the Grand High Priest by Walter L. Stockwell occupied the session yesterday. In the afternoon Mr. Stockwell completed the presentation of his address and the reports of the grand secretary and the grand treasurer were given.

Small girl (feeling the heat)— —won't writing letters, mamma?
Mother: Yes, dear.
—Please don't send my love to anyone.—Punch

Spring Suits

If your suit is to be tailored or ready to wear we can give you unequalled service. Our tailors are experts. Our ready to wear suits come from the largest and finest manufacturers.

The New Spring Styles

—will surprise you.

The New Spring Colors

—will please you.

The New Spring Fabrics

—will assure your satisfaction.

S. C. BARNES & SONS
Custom Tailoring. Ready to Wear Clothes.

Backache

Quick Relief with FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

Dull Headaches
Rheumatics
Backache—are symptoms of Kidney & Bladder trouble

CAPITOL THEATRE

LAST TIME TONIGHT

Buster Keaton

in his great seven reel comedy

"Hospitality"

Tomorrow Only

Shirley Mason

Friday - Saturday

"The Drivin' Fool"

It Will Surely Prove The Greatest Laughing Musical Riot of The Year.

OF COURSE U ARE COMING? EVERYBODY ELSE IS.

—BISMARCK— FRIDAY, JANUARY 25

ONE PERFORMANCE ONLY

Original Only Company Entour—of 100—2 Acts—
19 Scenes of Gorgeous Girls and Grandeur.

PRICES: Lower Floor $2.00. SEATS NOW
Balcony $2.00 and $2.50. SELLING
Gallery $1.00. All Place Tax
Boxes $2.50 and $3.00

Eltinge

TONIGHT — WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY

The AGE OF DESIRE

A First National Picture

"Whatever my son is, I deserted him as a babe for the luxury and riches I thought I could replace him in my heart. God knows what he's become by the time to blame. Don't desert him now—I could have meant much to him, but it's too late now he looks to me."

They've never hit this angle before in any picture—few picture stories as great as this—fewer still as gripping.

WILL ROGERS
in "HUSTLIN' HANK"

MOVIE CHAT AESOP FABLE

Webb's JANUARY SALE OF FURNITURE

See Our Low Prices

See Our Windows

HUGHES CASE ON RATES IS OPENED AGAIN

Additional Testimony To Be Taken; New Meter Deposit
Rules Given

The Hughes case against the railroad commission, a general introduction to the testimony which testimony was taken on Tuesday for further testimony on the Hughes case, as announced in an order handed down by a railroad commission.

The purpose of opening the case, according to a statement in the commission office, is for the introduction of further testimony by the commission, particularly with reference to the testimony of the Hughes case.

The Hughes case was filed with the railroad commission on January 10, 1924, when the railroad commission was asked to order the Hughes case to be taken up for further testimony. The Hughes case was taken up for further testimony on Tuesday, January 23, 1924, when the Hughes case was taken up for further testimony. The Hughes case was taken up for further testimony on Tuesday, January 23, 1924, when the Hughes case was taken up for further testimony.

LEGION POST PURCHASES ITS OWN CLUBHOUSE

Fargo, Jan. 23.—Milton E. Stevenson, post No. 106 of Fairmount, is the first post in Richland county to own its clubhouse. The building, purchased by the post is a one-story building, twenty-six by thirty feet, and is located on the corner of 1st and 2nd streets. The building was purchased for $1,000, and the post has agreed to pay for it in installments of $100 per month. The building will be used for the post's meetings, and for the use of the post's members.

WIDOW WINS $12,000 CASE

Jamestown, N. D., Jan. 23.—The United States district court session ended here about 11 p. m. Saturday when the jury returned a verdict for Mrs. Minnie Johnson against the Aetna Life Insurance company. The verdict was for $12,000, and the jury found in favor of the widow. The case was brought by the widow against the Aetna Life Insurance company, claiming that the company had wrongfully refused to pay the death benefit on her husband's policy.

NOVEL EXCUSE OF NO AVAIL

Rugby, N. D., Jan. 23.—Altaugh, a resident of Rugby, charged with the possession of a dangerous weapon, was found guilty by the jury. The defense offered a novel excuse, claiming that the defendant was acting in self-defense. However, the jury found this excuse to be of no avail, and the defendant was sentenced to a term of imprisonment.

Advancing Years Need Stomach Help

If inclined to Sour Rising, Heartburn, Gas, Stomach, Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets will give you quick relief. Our digestive system, with a little help, will pick out of a diversified diet what the body needs to maintain health. It is the sour stomach, gas, and acid condition that is the cause of the trouble. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets will give you quick relief. Our digestive system, with a little help, will pick out of a diversified diet what the body needs to maintain health. It is the sour stomach, gas, and acid condition that is the cause of the trouble. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets will give you quick relief.

HOW SHENANDOAH SIZED UP JUST BEFORE ITS SENSATIONAL ESCAPE

St. Hannigan, NIA Service and The Tribune staff writer, who atop the Shenandoah, N. J., only a few hours before the ship broke from the moorings with 22 men aboard. He is the only newspaper man to have gone to the top of the 172-foot mast. He was there to report on the state of preparedness for the proposed flight of the ship, to the North Pole. His comments on the state of preparedness were written for the Tribune. Here is a story of the manner in which the Shenandoah is manipulated.

BY STEVE HANNAGAN
NIA Service Staff Writer

(Copyright, 1924, by NIA Service.)
Lakewood, N. J., Jan. 23.—Only a few hours before the Navy's Shenandoah was torn from its giant moorings, the writer was invited to the scene to conduct an investigation for NIA Service and The Tribune into what was being done to make the "queen of the air" fit for the proposed North Pole flight.

Nervously the ship was swinging from the "Shenandoah Tower" mooring 172 feet above ground, as variable in its movements as a weather vane.

The water pipes on the ship were frozen as they might be this winter in the Arctic circle. Water in the modern built to design to keep the ship from freezing.

As the ship swung, the writer's flying officer aboard shuffled his feet from station to station as human ballast, just as a juggler might toss rubber balls about.

During one of these eccentric movements of the ship it nearly broke from its moorings. The stern became light and rose until the Zenith, with the most strongly tugging New meter, almost broke the steam car patrons follow.

For all consumers a minimum deposit of $50 per meter and when the company finds it necessary in order to protect it from a deposit for each meter of not more than the sum equal to the average bill for service furnished over a six weeks period through each meter.

There was a call to action. The writer was on the landing platform of the mooring mast—165 feet from the ground where he had a close-up view of operations. The crew was keyed to the emergency. It was feared the ship might break free then.

"Four men start aft!" shouted the commander. They did. Feet began to pound along the small keelway.

"Six men start aft!" More pounding feet. "Eight men—now ten!" rang out. It sounded like the charge of the light brigade echoing within the receivers of the ship.

"Hold it!" blared forth from the commander's cabin. "Stand by for a stern line to make the ship fast below!" was the command flashed to the ground crew which mobilized in a jiffy from a jolting "at rest" position in the warming rays of the sun.

After a 20-minute fight the ship was again on an even keel. It was the worst scare the crew experienced until it finally was blown away on the wings of a 60-mile-an-hour gale.

Yet the same juggling act was staged with each puff of wind. "This is an unusual day for the ship," said Commander E. E. McGray. "Don't think it's like this all the time."

"I'll bet I run ten miles up and down that ship today helping to keep it in balance," spoke 175 pounds of the human ballast as he went off watch.

"Yes, and most of it was like mountain climbing," chirped his companion. Rubber-soled shoes make the men as sure-footed as cats as they climb about the ship which is 680 feet long, 78 feet in diameter, 92 feet over all, with a gas capacity of 2,148,000 cubic feet, a total weight of 77,000 pounds and a cruising range of 4,000 miles.

After riding about 140 feet up in an elevator and then climbing a ladder I found myself on a landing platform, 165 feet above ground. It is from this floor that the members of the crew of the Shenandoah walk the gangplank into the big ship.

There were prospects of a trial flight when I arrived at the field. Naturally, enough I wanted to take a ride in a lighter-than-air craft, a new experience.

But Commander McGray flatly refused to carry me. Any additional weight might throw the ship off balance, he explained.

I watched the maneuvers—men going and coming as unconcerned as if they were on the ground; saw the effort with which the ship was controlled as it shifted in the breeze; heard the comments of the men—it was then I decided the Shenandoah would be one type of aircraft on which I would never care to ride.

And riding on the waves of the air holds no terror for me. I have ridden a rodeo thousands of miles, left with Captain Edward V. Rickenbacker, America's Ace. We experienced forced landings—and a crash.

Yet, if I were to ride the ZR-1 it would be with suicidal intent—and life is still sweet to me.

"Would you be willing to fly to the North Pole in the ZR-1?" I asked Patsy Mozier, who was born in Belfast, Ireland, and reared on Kelly street in Akron, O.

He is only 18, has been in the Navy two years and is the lowest in rank on the dirigible. He is a second-class aviation mechanic.

"Sure," said Patsy. "I'll fly any place in it."

Just to show the nerve of Patsy, who is champion pigsticker of the station, his friends tell how he was knocked down 21 times in the first round of one of his encounters and then arose to knock out his opponent.

Standing beneath the ship was a crowd of men, some of whom were looking up at the ship. Their eyes were turned to one of the six power cars. They were looking at a crowd of men.

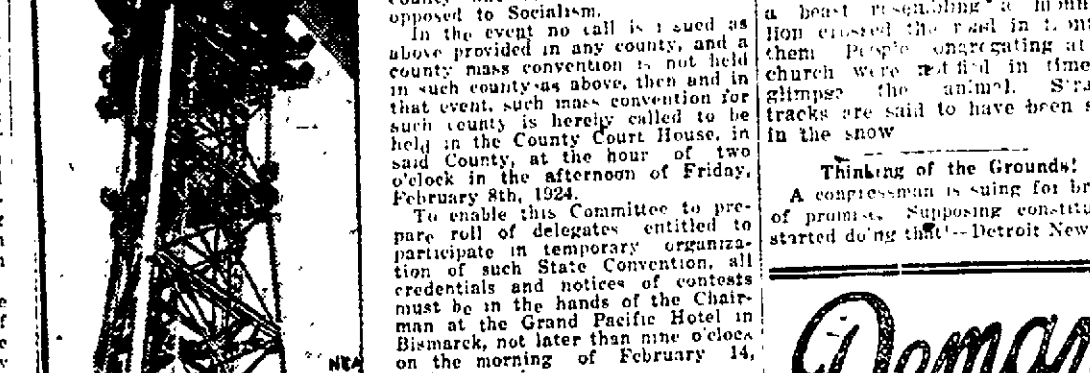

HOW SHENANDOAH IS MOORED TO MAST

A line is thrown to the ground from the tip-top of the tower—another attached to the nose of the ship. The line is thrown to the ground from the tip-top of the tower—another attached to the nose of the ship. The line is thrown to the ground from the tip-top of the tower—another attached to the nose of the ship.

It is a precarious climb to the top of the tower for a land-lubber—a climb right out in the open. It is a precarious climb to the top of the tower for a land-lubber—a climb right out in the open. It is a precarious climb to the top of the tower for a land-lubber—a climb right out in the open.

At the very peak is an arrangement that looks like a "flower pot." It is into this that the cable holds the nose of the dirigible is fitted.

The photo above shows the Shenandoah moored to the mast at Lakewood, N. J., while on the right is a close-up of the nose of the giant dirigible attached to the mast.

How Shenandoah is moored to mast

Flying to the North Pole? she was asked. "Well, I don't know," she answered reflectively. "I haven't just made up my mind. You see we have two babies, and there wouldn't be enough to support them long in case anything happened to Tom. He has no people, and my mother is an invalid."

"But if Uncle Sam calls—and Tom decides to go, I would be the last person in the world to stand in his path."

Mrs. Knight is just one of the brave women who will serve by standing and waiting if the Shenandoah tries the North Pole flight.

CALL FOR REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

Pursuant to the unanimous action of the Board Republican State Committee, taken at Fargo, North Dakota, January 17th, 1924, a State Convention representative of the Republican Party of North Dakota will be held at Fargo, N. D., on Thursday, February 1st, 1924, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of placing in nomination men and women candidates as follows:

One Republican National Committee member, thirteen candidates for delegate to the Republican National Convention to be held at Cleveland, Ohio; five candidates for Republican Presidential Electors; and will elect thirteen alternates. For each delegate, the names of the candidates to be nominated to be placed upon the Republican ballot to be voted on at the election of March 18th, 1924.

The representation to which the several counties shall be entitled in each convention has been fixed by the State Committee, based upon one delegate for each four hundred square miles, or major fraction thereof, cast for the Republican candidate for Governor at the last general election, as follows:

Adams County, 2 delegates; Barnes County, 2; Benson County, 2; Billings County, 1; Bottineau County, 1; Bowman County, 2; Burke County, 1; Burleigh County, 2; Cass County, 2; Cavalier County, 2; Deuel County, 2; Dickinson County, 2; Dunn County, 2; Eddy County, 2; Emmons County, 2; Foster County, 2; Golden Valley County, 2; Grand Forks County, 2; Grant County, 2; Griggs County, 2; Hettinger County, 2; Kidder County, 2; LaMoure County, 2; Logan County, 2; McHenry County, 2; McIntosh County, 2; McKenzie County, 2; McLean County, 2; Mercer County, 2; Morton County, 2; Nelson County, 2; Oliver County, 2; Pembina County, 2; Pierce County, 2; Ramsey County, 2; Ransom County, 2; Renville County, 2; Richland County, 2; Rolette County, 2; Sargent County, 2; Sheridan County, 2; Sioux County, 2; Steele County, 2; Stutsman County, 2; Towner County, 2; Traill County, 2; Walsh County, 2; Ward County, 2.

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—these substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't irritate the bowels or cause cramps. They take hold of the trouble and quickly remove it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the teeth. So do strong liquors. It is best to take calomel.

Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Headaches, "dullness," and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." The "clear" blood and "bright" eyes and "pink" cheeks and "good" and "put up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—these substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't irritate the bowels or cause cramps. They take hold of the trouble and quickly remove it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the teeth. So do strong liquors. It is best to take calomel.

Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Headaches, "dullness," and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." The "clear" blood and "bright" eyes and "pink" cheeks and "good" and "put up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—these substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't irritate the bowels or cause cramps. They take hold of the trouble and quickly remove it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the teeth. So do strong liquors. It is best to take calomel.

Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Headaches, "dullness," and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." The "clear" blood and "bright" eyes and "pink" cheeks and "good" and "put up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

G. S. WOOLEGGE GIVES PURPOSE

States Why He Called Conference at Minot

The purpose of the Democratic conference he is calling at Minot on February 7 is given by State Chairman G. S. Woolegge, state chairman, in the call as follows:

"My purpose in calling this conference and meeting is to discuss ways and means of strengthening our party in our state that we may contribute our share toward a democratic victory in November; to endeavor to further a spirit of harmony and unity among democrats, to discourage needless dissension within our ranks. I trust we may place principles and measures above the political fortunes of individuals, and we attempt to curtail or abridge the right of any democrat to become a candidate at the March primary. The democratic party has always stood for the primary election laws, which the republicans seek to nullify, or repeal. The democrats of this state have an opportunity to do something really constructive for our people. No party so genuinely represents the interests of all the people. Congress is now in session and why should not the democrats of North Dakota make a declaration of principles, and let Congress and the state and nation know where we stand on such important questions as the Fordney-McCumber tariff, tariff which has almost brought a panic in the agricultural states; and on the St. Lawrence waterway project, the Coulter loan plan the N. D. conference grant export plan, approved by the court of justice, the Mellon tax law, and other important questions? These are more vital and important to our people than who shall be a candidate for some office, or who shall be the beneficiary of federal patronage."

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

STRANGE BEAST
ROAMS FIELDS

Binford, N. D., Jan. 23.—This community is considerably interested in reports that a large, strange beast, is at large roaming the country-side. Some losses to young stock have been reported. While driving to church Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Backlund reported that a beast resembling a mountain lion crossed the road in front of them. People congregating at the church were startled in time to glimpse the animal. Strange tracks were said to have been seen in the snow.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

Thinking of the Grounds! A congressman is suing for breach of promise. Supposing constituents started doing that!—Detroit News.

RECEIVER SUES ON MANY NOTES

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now a receiver of closed banks, announced today. The notes, according to Mr. Van Sickle of Minot, chairman of the Savings Loan & Trust company, are stockholder of the First Farmers Bank of Minot and associated banks, following the closing of the latter institution.

Minot, N. D., Jan. 23.—Papers have been served on approximately 75 civil district court actions instituted by L. R. Darr of Bismarck, as receiver of the First Farmers Bank of Minot, seeking to recover on stock notes totaling approximately $25,000, originally given to the Savings Loan & Trust company of Minot and later transferred to the First Farmers Bank of Minot, which is now

THE BISMARCK TRIBUNE

Entered at the Postoffice, Bismarck, N. D., as Second Class Matter.

BISMARCK TRIBUNE CO. Publishers

Foreign Representatives
G. LOGAN PAYNE COMPANY
CHICAGO
Marquette Bldg.
NEW YORK
PAYNE, BURNS AND SMITH
DETROIT
Kresge Bldg.
Fifth Ave. Bldg.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use or republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

MEMBER AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATION

SUBSCRIPTION RATES PAYABLE IN ADVANCE
Daily by carrier, per year.....$7.20
Daily by mail, per year (in Bismarck)..... 7.20
Daily by mail, per year (in state outside Bismarck).... 5.00
Daily by mail, outside of North Dakota..... 6.00

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

AFTER DEATH

In Austria a 65-year-old poet, Arthur Brehmer, wondered what the critics would say of his poems after his death. So he faked death, went into hiding while obituaries of him appeared in the newspapers.

After a few days, Brehmer showed up again in his old haunts.

The experience satisfied him that his work was better than he had believed. But the trouble with his system is that he isn't any closer to the truth than before he feigned death.

People naturally stand in tremendous awe of the Hereafter. It's a mighty poor stick of a man who doesn't have fine things said about him at his funeral and for some time after. In a few weeks the average man is almost forgotten, except by his family and intimate friends. A few months or a few years, and even the really great are remembered only occasionally.

Brehmer should have stayed "dead" for six months. By that time, he'd have known the truth. And the truth possibly would be that not one person in 100 would ever give him a thought.

It takes at least one century to determine whether a man was really great in his generation. It takes 1000 years to find his real place in history. After that, if memory of him survives, he becomes legendary and most of the things credited to him are mythical.

This interesting question rises: "Just how much is the opinion of other people worth, to any man?" Not much, at best, barring actors, writers, politicians, specialists and others who depend on widespread popularity for their success and prosperity.

A fine thing to have a good standing, undoubtedly. And the best form of good standing is to be recognized as a true friend, a loyal husband, a good father, and all-round honorable man. But the greatest satisfaction is personal—in the individual's knowledge of himself, his merits and shortcomings. He alone knows the truth.

"GLAD RAGS"

The Sunday suit of clothes is one of the institutions that are vanishing in our generation. Years ago—and not so many, at that—it was a rare man who didn't have his "Sunday best" stored away for use only on the Sabbath or special occasions such as going to a church social or "Floradora."

The idea was to wear the new suit only "for good." It got into everyday use when the regular week-day suit fell to pieces.

People weren't as particular, in former days, about what they wore Monday to Saturday. At least, that was true of the men. Patches and mends were nothing to be ashamed of. They reflected the economy that was necessary in a period when money was so scarce that the residence of a man making $250 a month was pointed out as a Town Wonder to visitors being driven past in a phaeton.

There used to be a song in those times, "Every Day'll Be Sunday By-and-by." That goal has been reached, in the matter of men's clothes. Even the overall brigade is apt to wear the same suit week-day evenings as on Sunday.

The Sunday suit meant most to the boy in knee trousers, for with it the clothier "threw in" a pair of suspenders and a premium like a Brownie camera or a small alarm clock masquerading as a watch.

Since the Sunday suit was destined not to see week-day service for six months or more, father always bought it several sizes too big—a 16-year-old for a 12-year-old boy was the rule.

The glory of the new raiment was somewhat dimmed by the constant fear of ripping the seat of the trousers or making connections with grease spots.

We'd like to turn the clock back and get something that'd wear like one of the old-time Sunday suits. Yes, we'd even toil a couple of hours again with ma's iron, making trousers creases that would cut a dog in two. For we've lost, not only the Sunday suit, but a lot that went with it socially.

"PUSSYFOOT" ON TOBACCO

"Pussyfoot" Johnson, puffing a long, black cigar, is asked what he thinks of the crusade against tobacco. He says he's against prohibition of cigars, for he likes them, but wouldn't mind a ban on cigarettes, which he dislikes.

In a nutshell, that's usually the theory of prohibition on all kinds. A person who doesn't drink is apt to be against drinking by others. The person who dislikes jazz is quite naturally against it. Most of us would make all laws for others, not ourselves.

The result is, we have to be ruled by the law of averages.

RAILROADERS

Nearly two million employees are on the payrolls of the railroads. Including their families, they represent about a twelfth of the total population of the country. For every 11 people, there's one engaged directly in railroad transportation, not counting people who make railroad supplies.

The roads in 1923 loaded and moved nearly 50 million cars of freight—or about 25 cars for every employee. It was the busiest year in history. Loadings were a tenth more than in 1920, the previous record year.

LAND VALUES

New York talks of tearing down the Sixth avenue elevated and replacing it with a subway, to be paid for by assessing nearby property owners one per cent a year for a decade. Strangely enough, a large number of Sixth avenue property holders favor the levy. They figure the change would increase property values more than the cost.

It's an admission that property especially land, gets its value mainly from the activities of outsiders.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are printed here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

WHY GOTHAM LANDS A PRIZE

In choosing the location for the national convention the Democratic National committee showed itself to be a thrifty body. New York landed the prize because it offered the largest bonus, or a bonus with the fewest restraining strings tied to it.

For four years a deficit of large proportions has been hanging over the committee. For the campaign of 1920 the men who might have averted the creation of this debt did not have a great deal of heart interest in the political affairs of the Democratic party at that time. James M. Cox, the presidential candidate, provided plenty of verbal fireworks between July and November, but there was something about his party leadership that did not inspire enthusiasm in the breasts of the "angels" of Democracy—the kind of enthusiasm that expresses itself in an outpouring of the pecuniary sinews of battle.

It is expected the deficit will be wiped out with the aid of the fund which New York subscribed to get the convention. How much of the money will come out of the dreadful zone known as "Wall street" we do not know. There probably will be a fair division as between that source and Tammany Hall. Chicago did not stand a ghost of a show because most of the guarantee for that city was underwritten by Republicans of the city, and because the offering was so hedged about that there was mighty little, if any, chance that a cent could be applied to exterminating the deficit.

It probably doesn't make as much difference on candidacies as some people think whether either a Republican or Democratic convention is held in San Francisco, Chicago, New York, Cleveland, St. Louis, Kansas City, or elsewhere, and yet there is a certain psychological impact emerging from the environment which goes to create local political atmosphere. Tammany Hall, for instance, is pretty sure to make its influence felt more effectively in New York than in any other city. The United States is a mighty big place, however, and there always has been a strong anti-Tammany sentiment cut in the hinterland. No mere locale for a convention can overcome this feeling. In this case the locale will simply provide a better setting for a dramatization of Governor Smith and Charles F. Murphy in the party councils.

The more ardent friends of William G. McAdoo would have preferred another place than New York for the quadrennial convocation. But the McAdoo cap will be all the brighter if the gentleman from California can carry off the nomination in the Tammany stronghold. It will be a case of winning the battle in enemy territory, and that will be no small achievement in respect of its psychological values. — Minneapolis Tribune.

LOOKING FORWARD

The gratifying intelligence comes from Bismarck that next year the people will be called upon to levy an additional tax to pay the principal on the Bank of North Dakota bonds, to be followed later by levies to pay off the farm loan bonds, mill and elevator bonds and other little things that remind us we are wearing a shirt full of nettles.—The Beach Advance.

A THOUGHT

Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people. —Prov. 14:34.

The Savior comes in the strength of righteousness. Righteousness is thorough; it is the very spirit of unsparring truth. —Phillips Brooks.

Textile Agreement

Coblenz, Germany.—An important agreement has just been signed between representatives of textile industries in the occupied territories and the German committee. Under this, the German manufacturers will make deliveries in kind of manufactured articles, which will not be paid for by the allies, but will be placed to Germany's credit. The arrangement will be in force until April 15.

The women of Lapland are among the smallest in the world, averaging only four feet nine inches in height.

The Tangle

NIGHT LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT.

Ruth writes me you told her you wanted a stenographer. Dad says my friend, Sally Atherton, who has been in his advertising department, would like to get away as she is having some trouble with her husband. If you think she would suit you, wire dad immediately. He can then write Sally before he leaves for England.

Telegram From John Alden Prescott to Joseph Graves Hamilton.

Would like Mrs. Atherton very much. Need someone with advertising experience. When could she come?

Night Letter From Leslie Prescott to John Alden Prescott.

Dad is sending night letter to Sally tonight. He says you wire her immediately, care of his office. I will be home day after tomorrow and I am very glad. Little Jack has the sniffles and I always worry about croup.

Love,
LESLIE.

Reduction of Taxation

THE NEW DOCTOR'S FIRST CALL

It makes the patient sit up and hope he is going to get well.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"What's the next riddle?"
"What's the next riddle?" called the twins when the Riddle Lady came next day.

"I won't keep you waiting," smiled the Riddle Lady, looking around and nodding at everybody. "This one is so easy I'm almost ashamed to ask it. Anybody could guess it with his dunce-cap on."

"I'm not a flower,
I'm not a tree,
But full of leaves as a pound of tea.
I'm not a house,
I'm not a store,
But, picture! Why, I've a hundred or more."

"I'm not a king,
I'm not a queen,
But more pages have I than they've ever seen.
No voice have I
To greet your ears,
Yet stories I've told for a hundred years."

"I'm not the postman,
But all agree,
That a thousand letters I carry with me.
I'm not a country,
I'm not a state,
But my capitals come at a furious rate."

"I'm not a camel,
Or yet a snail,
But I've two backs, tho' not a tail.
However, dears,
As friend to friend,
I must confess that I've an end."

"Now what is it?" asked the Riddle Lady.

"Why, you have said that it wasn't so many things, there's nothing left," said Simple Simon.

"I only said it wasn't a tree of a flower, or king, or queen, or the postman, or a country, or a camel, or a snail," declared the Riddle Lady.

"There are lots of things left to guess. Shoes and ships and sealings and cabbages and kings. No not kings, but everything else."

"Maybe it's cabbages," said Simple Simon. "It's got leaves."

"No, it isn't a cabbage!" said the Riddle Lady. "Nancy, can't you guess what it is? Or you, Nick?"

But before the twins could say a word, the Wise-Man-From-Our-Town remarked, "I've been thinking and thinking. 'Is it a quadrennial of any sort? Or a dirigible? Or an e-pluribus unum? Or an ad valorem? Or a post-meridian? Or an anno-domini?'"

The Riddle Lady and Mother Goose people looked suddenly as though the sky had fallen on them.

"Is it as hard as that?" gasped the Fat Man. "Dunce cap nothing! I fear the Riddle Lady is making sport of us."

Nancy and Nick looked at each other and laughed. They knew that the Wise Man, like many wise people, was sometimes thought wiser than he really was.

"It's a book, isn't it?" said Nancy.

Tom Sims
NEWS PAPER

UNDERWEAR ON NIGHT DUTY

Famous Senator Makes It Labor Longer Hours

Washington's agony—Senator Magnus Johnson says he wears no pajamas. Sleeps in his underwear. It wasn't a bugaboo that told this, it was Magnus in person. In person, not in underwear. The fact that he sleeps at all is also exciting comment.

FASHIONS.
Pink pajamas with blue stripes to be worn while putting the cat out are chic and something new.

COMICS.
Well, what are pajamas? Just educated nightgowns.

BEAUTY SECRETS.
A ribbon tied around your cat's neck is the cat's pajamas.

SOCIETY.
When Mrs. Gossip heard Magnus Johnson said he wears no pajamas she said, "Senator Johnson wears underwear for pajamas, but my grandpa wears pajamas for underwear."

Whispering, Mrs. Gossip continued, "I haven't seen Mr. Neighbor's pajamas hanging on the wash line for three weeks. I don't like to criticize, but two weeks is long enough."

HEALTH HINT.
Lining the pajamas with tacks may get you up early, but it is not a healthy habit.

HOME HELPS.
When fringes on bottom of papa's pajamas get long enough use them to make Willie a cowboy suit.

RADIO NOTES.
Work the radio in pajamas and you may get static in your attic.

other and laughed. They knew that the Wise Man, like many wise people, was sometimes thought wiser than he really was.

"It's a book, isn't it?" said Nancy.

"Of course!" answered the Riddle Lady. "And here is one for you with a hundred pictures."

(To Be Continued)

(Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

EVERETT TRUE

BY CONDO

The years best book by America's best woman writer
"BLACK OXEN"
by GERTRUDE ATHERTON

Published by arrangement with Associated First National Pictures, Inc. Watch for the screen version produced by Frank Lloyd with Corinne Griffith as Countess Zattiany.

SYNOPSIS.

At a first night performance in New York, a beautiful young woman attracts attention by rising and leaving the stage. Clavering, a newspaper columnist, and his cousin, Dinwiddie, are particularly interested. Dinwiddie declares that she is the image of Mary Ogden, a belle of thirty years ago, who had married a Count Zattiany and lived abroad. He is convinced this is Mary's daughter, but all efforts to establish her identity prove futile.

Clavering manages to meet her, and she tells him she is the Countess Josef Zattiany, a cousin of Mary Ogden's; that she had married a relative of Mary's husband; that Mary is ill in a sanitarium in Vienna.

Clavering does not believe her story and frankly tells her so. Each is aware of a more than passing interest in the other. Clavering, as time goes on, becoming so distraught over the affair that he goes for advice to his friend, Gora Dwight, who is just creating a stir with the publication of her first novel.

Success is a great healer. More over, she was a woman of strong and indomitable character, and very proud. She consigned the man, who, after all, was the author of her phenomenal success, to uttermost oblivion. You cannot sell three hundred thousand copies of a book, receive hundreds of letters from unknown admirers telling you that you are the greatest novelist living, see your name constantly in the "news," be besieged by editors and publishers, and become a popular favorite with sophisticated, and carry around a lacerated heart. The past fades. The present reigns. The future is rosy as the dawn. Gora Dwight was far too arrogant at this period of her career to love any man even had there been anything left of her heart but a pump. Her life was full to the brim. She was quite aware that the present rage for stark and dour realism would pass—the indications were to be seen in the more moderate but pronounced success of several novels by authors impervious to crazes—but she was too fertile for apprehension on that score. She had many and quite different themes wandering like luminous ghosts about the corridors of a brain singularly free from labyrinthine, ready to emerge, full-bodied, when the world was ready for them.

The last time Clavering had sat opposite a woman by a log fire both had enjoyed the deep luxury of easy chairs and his hostess had seemed to melt into the depths until they entangled her. But Miss Dwight never lounged. Her backbone appeared to be made of cast-iron. She sat erect today on a hassock while he reclined in a chair that exactly fitted his spine and enjoyed contrasting her with the other woman. Gora Dwight had no beauty, but she never passed unnoticed in a crowd, even if unrecognized. Her oval eyes were a pale clear gray, cold, almost sinister, and she wore her mass of rich brown hair on top of her head and down to her heavy eyebrows. Her mouth was straight and sharply cut, but mobile and capable of relaxing into a charming smile, and she had beautiful teeth. The nose was short and emphatic, the jawbone salient. It was, altogether, a disharmonic type, for the head was long and the face short, broad across the high cheekbones; and her large light eyes set in her small dark face produced a disconcerting effect on sensitive people, but more often fascinated them.

Clavering had been told that in her California days she had possessed a superb bust, but long years of unremitting work in France and England had taken toll of her flesh and it had never returned; she was very thin and the squareness of her frame was emphasized by the strong uncompromising bones. But her feet and her brown hands were long and narrow, and the straight lines of the present fashion were very becoming to her. She wore today a gown of dark red velvet trimmed with brown fur and a touch of gold in the region of the waist. It was known that she got her clothes at the "best houses."

She was a curious mixture. Clavering reflected, and not the least contradictory thing about her was the way in which her rather sullen face could light up, exactly as if some inner flame leapt suddenly behind those uncanny eyes and shed its light over the very muscles of her cheeks and under her skin. The oddest of her traits was her apparent pleasure in seeing a man comfortable while she looked like a ramrod herself; and she was the easiest of mortals to talk to when she was in the right mood. She was morose at times, but her favorites Clavering reigned supreme. This he knew and took advantage of after the fashion of his sex. He told her all his troubles, his ambitions, which he believed to be futile, had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a woman to whom men did not make love. But if she had neither beauty nor allure she had brought up by flimsy parents who had been to the full—she had written plays which his own criticism had damned and no eye but his own and Gora Dwight's had ever seen—and she refreshed and stimulated his mind when his daily column must be written and his brain was stagnant. She also knew of his secret quest of the one woman and had been the repository of several fleeting hopes. And never for a moment had she thought him saturnine or disillusioned. Not she! Gora Dwight had an extraordinary knowledge of men for a

THE BISMARCK TRIBUNE

Entered at the Postoffice, Bismarck, N. D., as Second Class Matter.

BISMARCK TRIBUNE CO. Publishers

Foreign Representatives
G. LOGAN PAYNE COMPANY

CHICAGO
Marquette Bldg.

DETROIT
Kresge Bldg.

PAYNE, BURNS AND SMITH

NEW YORK
Fifth Ave. Bldg

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use or republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

MEMBER AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATION

SUBSCRIPTION RATES PAYABLE IN ADVANCE

Daily by carrier, per year.....$7.20

Daily by mail, per year (in Bismarck).....7.20

Daily by mail, per year (in state outside Bismarck).....6.00

Daily by mail, outside of North Dakota.....6.00

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER

(Established 1873)

AFTER DEATH

In Austria a 65-year-old poet, Arthur Brehmer, wondered what the critics would say of his poems after his death. So he faked death, went into hiding while obituaries of him appeared in the newspapers.

After a few days, Brehmer showed up again in his old haunts.

The experience satisfied him that his work was better than he had believed. But the trouble with his system is that he isn't any closer to the truth than before he feigned death.

People naturally stand in tremendous awe of the Hereafter. It's a mighty poor stick of a man who doesn't have fine things said about him at his funeral and for some time after. In a few weeks the average man is almost forgotten, except by his family and intimate friends. A few months or a few years, and even the really great are remembered only occasionally.

Brehmer should have stayed "dead" for six months. By that time, he'd have known the truth. And the truth possibly would be that not one person in 100 would ever give him a thought.

It takes at least one century to determine whether a man was really great in his generation. It takes 1000 years to find his real place in history. After that, if memory of him survives, he becomes legendary and most of the things credited to him are mythical.

This interesting question rises: "Just how much is the opinion of other people worth, to any man?" Not much, at best, barring actors, writers, politicians, specialists and others who depend on widespread popularity for their success and prosperity.

A fine thing to have a good standing, undoubtedly. And the best form of good standing is to be recognized as a true friend, a loyal husband, a good father, and all-around honorable man. But the greatest satisfaction is personal—in the individual's knowledge of himself, his merits and shortcomings. He alone knows the truth.

"GLAD RAGS"

The Sunday suit of clothes is one of the institutions that are vanishing in our generation. Years ago—and not so many, at that—it was a rare man who didn't have his "Sunday best" stored away for use only on the Sabbath or special occasions such as going to a church social or "Flordora."

The idea was to wear the new suit only "for good." It got into every-day use when the regular week-day suit fell to pieces.

People weren't as particular, in former days, about what they wore Monday to Saturday. At least, that was true of the men. Patches and mends were nothing to be ashamed of. They reflected the economy that was necessary in a period when money was so scarce that the residence of a man making $250 a month was pointed out as a Town Wonder to visitors being driven past in a phaeton.

There used to be a song in those times, "Every Day'll Be Sunday By-and-by." That goal has been reached, in the matter of men's clothes. Even the overall brigade is apt to wear the same suit week-day evenings as on Sunday.

The Sunday suit meant most to the boy in knee trousers, for with it the clothier "threw in" a pair of suspenders and a premium like a Brownie camera or a small alarm clock masquerading as a watch.

Since the Sunday suit was destined not to see week-day service for six months or more, father always bought it several sizes too big—a 16-year-old for a 12-year-old boy was the rule.

The glory of the new raiment was somewhat dimmed by the constant fear of ripping the seat of the trousers or making connections with grease spots.

We'd like to turn the clock back and get something that'd wear like one of the old-time Sunday suits. Yes, we'd even toll a couple of hours again with ma's iron, making trousers creases that would cut a dog in two. For we've lost, not only the Sunday suit, but a lot that went with it socially.

"PUSSYFOOT" ON TOBACCO

"Pussyfoot" Johnson, puffing a long, black cigar, is asked what he thinks of the crusade against tobacco. He says he's against prohibition of cigars, for he likes them, but wouldn't mind a ban on cigarettes, which he dislikes.

In a nutshell, that's usually the theory of prohibition of all kinds. A person who doesn't drink is apt to be against drinking by others. The person who dislikes jazz is quite naturally against it. Most of us would make all laws for others, not ourselves.

The result is, we have to be ruled by the law of averages.

RAILROADERS

Nearly two million employees are on the payrolls of the railroads. Including their families, they represent about a twelfth of the total population of the country. For every 11 people, there's one engaged directly in railroad transportation, not counting people who make railroad supplies.

The roads in 1923 loaded and moved nearly 50 million cars of freight—or about 25 cars for every employee. It was the busiest year in history. Loadings were a tenth more than in 1920, the previous record year.

LAND VALUES

New York talks of tearing down the Sixth Avenue elevated and replacing it with a subway, to be paid for by assessing nearby property owners one per cent a year for a decade. Strangely enough, a large number of Sixth Avenue property holders favor the levy. They figure the change would increase property values more than the cost.

It's an admission that property especially land, gets its value mainly from the activities of outsiders.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

WHY GOTHAM LANDS A PRIZE

In choosing the location for the national convention the Democratic National committee showed itself to be a thirty body. New York landed the prize because it offered the largest bonus, or a bonus with the fewest restraining strings tied to it.

For four years a deficit of large proportions has been hanging over the committee. For the campaign of 1920 the men who might have averted the creation of this debt did not have a great deal of heart in the political affairs of the Democratic party at that time. James M. Cox, the presidential candidate, provided plenty of verbal fireworks between July and November, but there was something about his party leadership that did not inspire enthusiasm in the breasts of the "angels" of Democracy—the kind of enthusiasm that expresses itself in an outpouring of the pecuniary "sweat of battle."

It is expected the deficit will be wiped out with the aid of the fund which New York subscribed to get the convention. How much of the money will come out of the dreadful zone known as "Wall Street" we do not know. There probably will be a fair division as between that source and Tammany Hall.

Chicago did not stand a ghost of a show because most of the guarantee for that city was underwritten by Republican of the city, and because the offering was so hedged about that there was mighty little, if any, came that a cent could be applied to exterminating the deficit.

It probably doesn't make as much difference on candidates as some people think, whether a Republican or Democratic convention is held in San Francisco, Chicago, New York, Cleveland, St. Louis, Kansas City, or elsewhere, and yet there is a certain psychological impact emerging from the environment which goes to create local political atmosphere. Tammany Hall, for instance, is pretty sure to make its influence felt more effectively in New York than it could in any other city. The United States is a mighty big place, however, and there always has been a strong anti-Tammany sentiment out in the hinterland. No more locale for a convention can overcome this feeling. In this case the locale will simply provide a better setting for a dramatization of Governor Smith and Charles F. Murphy in the party councils.

The major prize, indeed, of William G. McAdoo would have been reserved another place than New York for the quadrennial convalescence, but the feather in the McAdoo cap will be all the brighter if the gentleman from California can carry off the nomination in the Tammany stronghold. It will be a case of winning the battle in enemy territory, and that will be no small achievement in respect of its psychological values. — Minneapolis Tribune

LOOKING FORWARD

The gratifying intelligence comes from Bismarck that next year the people will be called upon to levy in additional tax to pay the principal on the Bank of North Dakota bonds, to be followed by levies to pay off the farm loan mill and elevator bonds and other little things that remind us we are wearing a shirt full of nettles.—The Beach Advance.

A THOUGHT

Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is an approach to any people.—Prov. 14:34

The Savior comes in the strength of righteousness. Righteousness is thorough; it is the very spirit of unsparring truth.—Phillips Brooks

Textile Agreement.

Coblenz, Germany.—An important agreement has just been signed between representatives of textile industries in the occupied territories and the permit committee. Under this, the German manufacturers will make deliveries in kind of manufactured articles, which will not be paid for by the allies, but will be placed to Germany's credit. The arrangement will be in force until April 15.

The women of Lapland are among the smallest in the world, averaging only four feet nine inches in height.

THE NEW DOCTOR'S FIRST CALL
It makes the patient sit up and hope he is going to get well.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS
BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"What's the next riddle?" asked the twins when the "Riddle Lady" came next door.

"I won't keep you waiting," smiled the Riddle Lady, looking around and nodding at everybody. "This one is so easy I'm almost ashamed to ask it. Anybody could guess it with his dunce-cap on."

"I'm not a flower, I'm not a tree, But full of leaves as a pound of tea, I'm not a house, I'm not a store, But, pictures! Why, I've a hundred or more."

"I'm not a king, I'm not a queen, But more pages have I than they've ever seen. No voice have I to greet you, dear, Yet stories I've told for a hundred years."

"I'm not the postman, But all agree, That a thousand letters I carry with me. I'm not a country, I'm not a state, But my people come at a furious rate."

"I'm not a camel, Or you can't see, But I've two backs, tho' not a tail. However, dear, As friend to friend, I must confess that I've an end."

"Now what is it?" asked the Riddle Lady.

"Why, you have said that it wasn't so many things, there's nothing left," said Simple Simon.

"Only said it wasn't a tree of a flower, or king, or queen, or the postman, or a country, or a camel, or a snail," declared the Riddle Lady. "There are lots of things left to guess. 'Shoes and ships and sealin' and wax and cabbages and kings.' No not kings, but everything else."

"Maybe it's cabbages," said Simple Simon. "It's got leaves."

"No, it isn't a cabbage," said the Riddle Lady. "Nancy, can't you guess what it is? Or you, Nick?"

But before the twins could say a word, the Wise-Man-From-Our-Town remarked, "I've been thinking and thinking and thinking 'Is it a quadrennial of any sort? Or a dirigible? Or an e-pluribus unum? Or an ad valorem? Or a post-meridian? Or an anacronism?'"

The Riddle Lady and Mother Goose people looked suddenly as though the sky had fallen on them. "It is as hard as that," gasped the Wise Man. "Dunce cap nothing! I fear the Riddle Lady is making sport of us."

Nancy and Nick looked at each other and laughed. They knew that the Wise Man, like many wise people, was sometimes thought wiser than he really was.

"It's a book, isn't it?" said Nancy.

Tom Sims NEWS PAPER
UNDERWEAR ON NIGHT DUTY

Famous Senator Makes It Labor Longer Hours

Washington's agony Senator Magnus Johnson says he wears no pajamas. Sleeps in his underwear. It wasn't a bedbug that told this, it was Magnus in person. In person, not in underwear. The fact that he sleeps at all is also exciting comment.

FASHIONS.

Pink pajamas with blue stripes to be worn while putting the cat out are chic and something new.

COMICS.

Well, what are pajamas? Just educated nightgowns.

BEAUTY SECRETS.

A ribbon tied around your cat's neck is the cat's pajamas.

SOCIETY.

When Mrs. Gossip heard Magnus Johnson had no pajamas she said, "Senator Johnson wears underwear for pajamas, but my grandma wears pajamas for underwear."

Whispering, Mrs. Gossip continued, "I've seen Mr. Neighbors' pajamas hanging on the wash line for three weeks. I don't like to criticize, but two weeks is long enough."

HEALTH HINT.

Lining the pajamas with tacks may get you up early, but it is not a healthy habit.

HOME HELPS.

When fringes on bottom of pajama pants get long enough use them to make Willie a cowboy suit.

RADIO NOTES.

Work the radio in pajamas and you may get static in your attic.

other and laughed. They knew that the Wise Man, like many wise people, was sometimes thought wiser than he really was.

"It's a book, isn't it?" said Nancy.

ADVERTISING.

Have you seen our underwear? Delectable legs, and sleeves turn it into a bathing suit. Patented seams make it useful as a sheet or a tent in case of rain. May be worn as a Palm Beach suit. Everywear Co.

FOREIGN NEWS.

News from New York says they have no pajama shortage. Wire informs us they lay enough pajamas from theater managers giving musical comedies and bedroom farces to keep the millions well supplied.

ETIQUETTE.

If the invitation says "full dress" do not wear pajamas.

WEATHER.

Cool enough for pajamas tonight.

MARKETS.

Pajama shortage in Washington.

EDITORIAL.

"Every problem solved creates more problems," said Al Apple once. The cave man had no electric light to be turned on suddenly. So he never got to sleep without pajamas. Now you should wear pajamas.

FICTION.

"I like pajamas," said the senator from Minnesota.

SPORTS.

Kid Magnus Johnson, champion sleeper as is, needs a new trainer for the coming presidential bout. Kid Johnson has no pajamas. This may give him a cold in the head, among other things he has there.

BEDTIME STORY.

"It isn't cold. Next time you put your pajamas on over your underwear I'll spank you."

"Of course!" answered the Riddle Lady. "And here is one for you with a hundred pictures."

(To Be Continued)

(Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

BLACK OXEN
by GERTRUDE ATHERTON

Published by arrangement with Associated First National Pictures, Inc. Watch for the screen version produced by Frank Lloyd with Corinne Griffith as Countess Zattiany.

Copyright 1923 by Gertrude Atherton

SYNOPSIS.

At a first night performance in New York, a beautiful young woman attracts attention by rising and leisurely surveying the audience through her glasses. Clavering, a newspaper columnist, and his cousin, Dinwiddie, are particularly interested. Dinwiddie declaring that she is the image of Mary Ogden, a belle of thirty years ago, who had married a Count Zattiany and lived abroad. He is convinced this is Mary's daughter, but all efforts to establish her identity prove futile.

Clavering manages to meet her, and she tells him she is the Countess Josef Zattiany—a cousin of Mary Ogden's; that she had married a relative of Mary's husband; that Mary is ill in a sanitarium in Vienna.

Clavering does not believe her story and frankly tells her so. Each is aware of a more than passing interest in the other, Clavering, as time goes on, becoming so distraught over the affair that he goes for advice to his friend, Gora Dwight, who is just creating a stir with the publication of her first novel.

XIV (continued)

The young editors, critics, special writers, were enchanted. This was Life! At last! Moreover, it was Democracy. These young and able men, having renounced their earlier socialism, their sense of humor recognizing its disharmony with high salaries and pleasant living, were hot for Democracy. Nothing paid like Democracy in this heaving world. The Democratic wave rose and roared. Symbolic was this violent eruption of small town fiction, as realistic as the kitchen, as pessimistic as Wall Street. All virtue, all hope, all idealism, had gone out of the world. Romance, for that matter, never had existed and it was high time the stupid world was forcibly purged of its immemorial illusion. Life was and ever had been sordid, commonplace, ignoble, vulgar, im-medicable; refinement was a cowardly veneer that was beneath any seeker after Truth, and Truth was all that mattered. Love was to laugh. Happiness was hysteria, and content the delusion of morons (a word now hotly racing "authentic"). As for those verbal criminals, "loyalty" and "patriotism"—left rotting.

Their success was colossal. Gora Dwight caught the crest of the wave and sold three hundred thousand copies of "Pools." She immediately signed a contract with one of the women's magazines for the serial rights of her next novel for thirty thousand dollars, and received a corresponding advance from her publisher. Her short stories sold for two thousand dollars apiece, and her first novel was exhumed and had a heavy sale.

It was difficult to be pessimistic with a hundred thousand dollars in bonds and mortgages and the deed of a house in her strong box, but Gora Dwight was an artist and she could always fall back on technique. But although her book was the intellectual expression of wildly distorted complexes, owing to the disillusionments of war, the humiliation of her ego in woman's most disastrous adventure, and the consequent repression of all her dearest urges, she deserved her success far more than any of her adolescent rivals. She had formed her style in the days of complete normalcy, and not only was that style distinguished, vigorous and individual, but she was able to convey her extremist realism so subtly and yet so ambiguously that she could afford to disdain the technicalities of the "younger school."

A marvelous feat. Most of them used the frank vocabulary of the humble home, as alone synonymous with Truth. Never before had such words invaded the sacrosanct pages of American letters. Little they recked, as Mr. Leo Clavering, who took the entire school as an obscene joke, pointed out, that they were but taking the shortest cut—advantage of the post-war license affecting all classes—to save themselves the exhausting effort of acquiring a vocabulary and forming a style.

The spade as a symbol vanished from fiction.

Miss Dwight had her own ideals. Little as she permitted her unfortunate characters to have any, and not only was she a consummate master of words and of the art of suggestion, but she had been brought up by fussy parents who held that certain words were not to be used in refined society. The impressions received in plastic years were not to be obliterated by any tad of the hour.

No one knew, not even her fellow Californians, that she had had a disastrous love affair, which had culminated in an attempt to murder her beautiful sister-in-law. Her book had been a wild revelation from every standard of the youth, and she loathed love and the bare idea of mutual happiness in fellow mortals as she recently had loathed blood and fire and war and Germany.

Millionaire's Suit.

Paris.—The case in which Frank J. Gould, American millionaire, is suing his former wife, Miss Edith Kelly, to prevent her from appearing on the stage under the name of Edith Kelly Gould, is again before the Paris court. Mr. Gould claims an injunction to prevent her from using his name, penalties for each time she appears with the name of Gould and damages against the music hall.

Read Tribune Want Ads.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Classified Advertising Rates
1 insertion 25 words or under 10¢
2 insertions 25 words or under 20¢
3 insertions 25 words or under 30¢
1 week 25 words or under 1.25
Ads over 25 words, 2¢ additional per word.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY RATES
65 Cents Per Inch
All classified ads are cash in advance. Copy should be received by 12 o'clock to insure insertion same day.
WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO REJECT ANY COPY SUBMITTED.

THE BISMARCK TRIBUNE
PHONE 32

HELP WANTED—MALE
CLERKS, 18 UP—Excellent salary. Examination, Bismarck, Feb. 9. For government positions at Washington. Experience unnecessary. For free particulars, write to: Bureau of Civil Service, 1220 Barrister Bldg., Washington, D. C. 1-21-24

WANTED—Party with small capital for manager over agents' Mfg. and ship out goods. Best proposition in the State. Call room 22 between 5 and 8 p. m. Bismarck Hotel. 1-23-24

HELP WANTED—FEMALE
WANTED—Two experienced ladies or gentlemen to take orders at once and also a lady to travel with manager, can make from $5.00 to $15.00 per day and up. Call room 22, Bismarck Hotel between 5 and 8 p. m. 1-23-24

HOUSEKEEPER WANTED—Good wages, must have experience with children, 6-8-10 years old. Give references. J. B. Field, Zap, N. Dak. 1-22-24

WANTED—A middle aged woman as housekeeper on a farm home. P. O. Box 663. 1-17-24

WANTED—A girl for general house work. Apply Mrs. Frank Shepard, 6 Ave. B. 1-15-24

BOARD AND ROOM
BANNER HOUSE—Room and board, two in a bed, $7 each. Single room and board, $8 a week. Transient supper, bed and breakfast, $1, also help wanted. Phone 231. 1-21-24

ROOMS FOR RENT
FOR RENT—Two furnished rooms, steam heated, for light housekeeping. "The Lorraine Apts." Phone 303. B. F. Flanagan, propr. 1-17-24

FOR RENT—Two rooms partly furnished in a modern home for light housekeeping. 622 1st St. Phone 766-W. 1-22-24

FOR RENT—Room in strictly modern home. Convenient to main hospitals, 306 9th St. Phone 641-J. 1-22-24

FOR RENT—Furnished room in modern home. Apply 514 1st St. Phone 275-M. 1-22-24

FOR RENT—Three good unfurnished housekeeping rooms. Call at 803 4th St. 1-17-24

UNUSUAL SALES OPPORTUNITY
F. Bowser & Co., Inc., pioneer manufacturers of gasoline and oil handling devices for oil companies, garages, factories, stores and filling stations, have a sale vacancy in the Bismarck territory. If you are capable of handling a high grade specialty proposition offering an exceptional opportunity for a permanent and profitable career, write to 642 Building Exchange, Minneapolis, Minnesota, giving detailed information. 1-23-24

DRESSMAKING
FIRST CLASS DRESSMAKER—Mrs. Chas. Lamb. Phone 1102. The Lorraine, Apt. 1. 1-21-24

AUTOMOBILE—MOTORCYCLES
FOR SALE—Late 1921 Dodge Roadster in excellent condition. Phone 402-R. 1-22-24

LAND
FOR SALE OR TRADE—160 acres with coal mine and equipment, two miles from county seat. Yearly output 3,500 tons. Otterstrom Bros., Carson, N. D. 1-19-24

FOR SALE OR RENT—320 acres hay land, five miles northwest of Bismarck. R. S. Price, Deborah, Ia. 1-21-24

WANTED—Good farms at right price. O. J. Mortenson, Moorhead, Minn. 1-18-24

MISCELLANEOUS
FOR SALE—Purebred Bronze Turkey Toms, Large boned, of a 51 lb. old Tom. Weight 22 to 25 lbs. Price $10 to $15 each. Also purchased single comb brown leghorn cockerels. Price $15.00 each. Larcia Brown, Baldwin, N. D. 1-23-24

FOR SALE OR TRADE—One Allman-Taylor 25-30 tractor, one 32-56 Minneapolis separator, 160 acres improved, three miles from county seat. Otterstrom Bros., Carson, N. D. 1-19-24

FOR SALE—Kota rust resistant hard spring seed wheat @ $2.50 per bushel. F. O. B. Bismarck. John Sabot, Route 1. Bismarck. 1-21-24

WANTED—To hear from owner with residence for sale. Possession not needed. Cash spring. Write, 206 N. Duane. 1-22-24

FOR SALE—A velvet plush coat in good condition. Lining very good. Phone 946-M. 1-21-24

WANTED—Large clean cotton rugs. Three cents per pound. Bismarck Tribune Co. 1-23-24

FOR RENT—Garage, 508 5th St. Phone 678-J. 1-21-24

SALESMAN
SALESMAN WANTED—Local married man, selling coffee and teas, for national organization, directly to consumer. This position offers a real future. Must be clean cut, ambitious. Bond required—salary and commission. Call for D. J. Diebold, Annex Hotel or write Jewel Tea Co., Inc. Moorhead, Minn. 1-21-24

PULLER BRUSH COMPANY has opening for salesman in the Bismarck section. Experience not necessary. Opportunity for advancement. Write Box 19 Bismarck for interview. 1-22-24

AGENTS WANTED
MEN AND WOMEN make large profits selling Rawleigh's Good Health Products and Household Necessities. No experience necessary. Largest company teaches you the most successful methods and gives most help and cooperation. Give age, occupation, references. W. T. Rawleigh Co., Ct. 1904, Minneapolis, Minn. 1-23-24

AGENTS WANTED—SELL MADE: SON "BETTER MADE" SHIRTS
direct from our factory to wearer. No capital or experience required. Hardly sold. Big profits. Write for FREE SAMPLES. MADISON MILLS, 603 Broadway, New York. 1-23-24

BUSINESS CHANCES
FOR SALE—Old established general merchandise store, in the heart of Williamette Valley, unsurpassed farming, dairying, fruits, berries and nuts, and on edge of one of the largest timber sections in Oregon. Logging operations just started this year and new mill about to be built. It will pay you to investigate, for particulars, address 704, care Tribune. 1-23-24

WE MATCH your trades. Write full particulars and get our plan. Results will follow. The Service Company, Moorhead, Minn. Box 339. 1-18-24

FOR SALE OR RENT HOUSES AND FLATS
FOR SALE—6 room modern bungalow, 26 by 40 feet, with all modern improvements, including 3 bed rooms, oak floors, built in china closets etc., glassed in front porch, convenient to both high and grade schools, also garage. This is a very good property and is offered at a reasonable price; 9 room partly modern house, water sewer and lights, east front, 60 foot lot, built in rear; owner will trade for satisfactory farm machinery, horses and cows; fine 50 foot building lot at corner of First and Thayer streets, level, trees, on water sewer and gas, east front, close in, one of best building lots in Bismarck. Geo. M. Register. 1-21-24

FOR RENT—Modern bungalow, two large rooms on main floor. Murphy folding bed, furnished or unfurnished, $25 per month. Call at 918 Ave. B. 1-22-24

FOR RENT—Modern bungalow of 6 rooms and bath, hot water, heat, full basement. Call at 102 Ave. B. Phone 275-W. 1-22-24

FOR RENT—Modern 6 room house, remodeled and redecorated. Ivory finish throughout breakfast room. Phone 697. 1-17-24

FOR RENT—Five room modern house by February 1. Phone 601 after five p. m. or call at 808 Rosser. 1-22-24

FOR RENT—Strictly modern apartment in Rose Apartments. F. W. Murphy. Phone 852. 12-23-24

FOR RENT—Two apartments fully equipped for light housekeeping. Phone 794-W. 1-12-24

FOR RENT—Five room modern bungalow and garage. Phone 644-J. 1-21-24

TEN ROOM modern house, choice locations. Harvey Harris & Co. 1-19-24

FOR RENT—Three room house, partly modern, 42 Main St. Phone 64. 1-16-24

FOR RENT—5 room house, partly modern, close in. Phone 647. 1-21-24

NOTICE OF SALE
By virtue of a judgment and decree entered and docketed in the District Court of Burleigh County, North Dakota, on the 20th day of December, 1923, in an action in which George E. Dutton is plaintiff and L. M. Hogue, George M. Hogue and Herb J. Huelskamp are defendants for the sum of $1,882.39 and the foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate in said county, specified and by virtue of a writ issued out of said District Court upon said decree now in my hands commanding me to sell the real property therein and hereinafter described in satisfaction of said judgment and decree.

I, Albin Hedstrom, Sheriff of Burleigh County, North Dakota, will sell at the front door of the Courthouse in the City of Bismarck, Burleigh County North Dakota, at two o'clock in the afternoon of the 2nd day of February, 1924, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the following described real property situated in said Burleigh County, to-wit:

The Northeast quarter (NE 1/4) of section eight (8), in township one hundred forty one (141) North of range seventy six (76) West.

There will be due at the date of said sale upon said judgment the sum of $1,882.39 with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum from December 20, 1923, together with the costs and expenses of such sale.

Dated at Bismarck, North Dakota December 24th, 1923.

ALBIN HEDSTROM, Sheriff of Burleigh County, North Dakota.

SCHNEIDER & HEDER, Attorneys for Plaintiff, Bismarck, North Dakota. (12-24, Jan. 2-9-15-23)

College Suicide
Teacher, Eng. John A. T. P., assistant master of Queen's College here, committed suicide by gas poisoning because he was under notice of dismissal.

Miss Hila Marshall, a 20-year-old stenographer, has written a novel which is of fine considerable attention in London.

There's Two of Most Everything in This Double-Up Town of Twin States

I've traveled a sight in this land of ours.
From Florida clean to Montana:
And what struck me as the queerest town
Was the city of Texarkana.
—Ballads of a Wanderer.

By NEA Service
Texarkana, Ark., Tex., Jan. 23.—In this city a man can slip on a banana peel in Texas and pick himself up in Arkansas.

Snowballs hurtle through the air from Arkansas and find their marks in breezy Lone Star States, living in their own Texas.

For half of Texarkana is in the one state and half in the other. Right through the center of the town runs State Line avenue. On one side the city is governed by the laws of Arkansas; on the other by the laws of Texas.

Two Of Everything
Besides the two state governments, there are two full sets of county officers, two public school systems, two complete municipalities, with two mayors, two city councils, two police departments, two U. S. courts—two of nearly everything. At one time two U. S. senators had their residence in Texarkana—Shepard of Texas and Kirby of Arkansas.

The federal building and the urinal station are the only buildings that stand in both states. Besides the postoffice and station the only other things of a public nature that serve both cities are the fire departments, individually owned by each city but operated as one, and a joint sewage disposal plant.

Dotted line shows how Arkansas and Texas divide the town of Texarkana along the principal thoroughfare of State Line avenue. Below at right: Governor Neff of Texas (left) shaking hands with his contemporary, Governor McRae of Arkansas, on the occasion of the town's golden jubilee celebration.

Recently a postal clerk pilfered a letter and the case was taken into the U. S. court for the western district of Arkansas. During the trial the question of jurisdiction was raised and it was necessary to determine whether the offending clerk's work table was located in Arkansas or Texas.

Tough Time
Newspaper reporters have a tough life, for when their work of news-gathering is complete in one state, they hustle over the line and do it all over in the other.

The close individual and official friendship of the twin cities was demonstrated in the recent golden jubilee celebration here, when the governors of Arkansas and Texas and the mayors of Texarkana, Tex., and Texarkana, Ark., marched up State Line avenue and clasped hands across the line.

Unusual Opportunity
A young Filipino saw in a newspaper an advertisement which read: "Wanted: A saxophone. Must be in good condition."
Not long afterward a swartny young chap called at the address and said to the advertiser:
"I want to accept the position. I have never been a saxophone, but I think I can do it, and I am in good condition." Youngstown Telegram.

It's the Upkeep.
The old boy may seem a pirate, but just think what it will cost those whose hats are in the ring! Milwaukee Leader.

TAKEN FROM LIFE

Going—Going!

BY MARTIN

1. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

2. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

3. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

4. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

5. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

6. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

7. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

8. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

9. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

10. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

11. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

12. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

13. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

14. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

15. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

16. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

OUT OUR WAY

BY WILLIAMS

ALL IN ASTIN YOU IS - DO YOU OWN THIS ICE. HUH? DO YA?

NO-BUT FER GOSH SAKES FAT DONT GIT SO CLOSET ME!

WHERE FELLERS CNEDET COSMETEEN SOFT STRECHY! GED DOWN LOWERN ANYTHINK

1. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

2. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

3. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

4. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

5. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

6. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

7. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

8. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

9. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

10. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

11. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

12. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

13. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

14. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

MARKET NEWS

WHEAT EASY IN EARLY DEALING

Sags to Below Yesterday's Finish After Start

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Wheat was easy in response to lower quotations in today's early dealings at Live-pool. Trade lacked volume after opening unchanged to 3-8 cents lower May $1.08 5-8 to $1.08 3-4 and July $1.07 to $1.07 1-4 and the market rallied a little and then sagged to below yesterday's finish.

Later wheat scored something of an uptick when corn and oats showed a decided upward trend, but the effect on wheat failed to last. Prices closed unsettled at 1-8 cents net lower to a shade advance, May $1.08 7-8 to $1.08 5-8, and July, $1.07 1-4 to $1.07 3-8.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK
Chicago, Jan. 23.—Hog receipts 33,000. Unchanged. Mostly steady to five cents lower. Practical top $7.30. Cattle receipts 13,000. Excepting good to choice light and handyweight fat steers market semi-demoralized. Vealers strong to 25 cents higher. Sheep receipts 17,000. Fairly active. Fat lambs and yearlings weak to around 15 cents lower.

MINNEAPOLIS FLOUR
Minneapolis, Jan. 23.—Flour unchanged. Shipments 38,300 barrels. Brand, $25.50 to $27.

ST. PAUL LIVESTOCK
St. Paul, Jan. 23.—Cattle receipts 2,000. Steady. No early sales. Big packers bidding weak to 25 cents on all classes. Top yearlings early, $8.75. Bulk steers and yearlings, $8 and down. Fat cows, $3.50 to $4.75. Mostly heifers up to $5.50. Good fat cows selling around $5.50. Heifers of the better grade around $5.50.

MINNEAPOLIS GRAIN

Minneapolis, Jan. 23.—Wheat receipts, 121 cars, compared with 334 cars a year ago. Cash No. 1 northern, $1.13 3-8 to $1.13 1-8. No. 2 dark northern spring choice to fancy, $1.12 3-8 to $1.12 1-8. No. 3 choice, $1.12 1-8 to $1.12 3-8. Ordinary to good, $1.12 3-8 to $1.12 1-8. May, $1.12 3-8; July, $1.14 3-8; September, $1.11 3-4.

Corn No. 3 yellow, 71 3-4 to 72 cents; oats No. 3 white, 41 1-2 to 42 3-4 cents; barley 51 to 63 cents; rye No. 2, 65 7-8 to 66 1-8 cents; Pas. No. 1, $2.50 to $2.55.

BISMARCK GRAIN
(Furnished by Russell-Miller Co.)
Bismarck, Jan. 23, 1924.
No. 1 dark northern, $1.08
No. 1 northern spring, 1.04
No. 1 amber durum, .83
No. 1 mixed durum, .89
No. 1 red durum, .76
No. 3 flax, 2.10
No. 2 flax, 2.10
No. 1 flax, 2.10
No. 1 flax, 2.10
No. 1 flax, 2.10

We quote but do not handle the following:
New Shell Corn, $0.32
Oats, $0.32
Barley, $0.32
Speltz, $0.32
Yellow & Mixed, $0.32
No. 1 55 lb test, $0.32
No. 1 55 lb test, $0.32

PRESIDENT IN MESSAGE LAYS DOWN PROGRAM

Washington, Jan. 23.—The president's message to Congress today laid down a program of action for the coming year. It was a message of hope and confidence, and it was a message of action. The president said that he was confident that the country was on the right path, and that he was confident that the people were with him. He said that he was confident that the country was on the right path, and that he was confident that the people were with him.

May Seal, Outer Means
In these critical times, when the country is in a state of confusion, it is important that the president should take action. He should take action to seal the country, and he should take action to seal the country. He should take action to seal the country, and he should take action to seal the country.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS
In the Matter of the Estate of Francis McRae, Deceased.
Notice is hereby given by the undersigned Charles McDonald, Administrator of the Estate of Francis McRae late of the City of Bismarck, in the County of Burleigh and State of North Dakota, deceased, to the creditors of, and all persons having claims against, said deceased, to exhibit them with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice, to said Administrator at his office in the City of Mandan in said Morton County.

Dated January 12th, A. D. 1924.
CHARLES McDONALD, Administrator.
First publication on the 15th day of January, A. D. 1924.
1-16-24-25, 2-6.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

BY STANLEY

IT JUST MAKES ME SHUDDER TO SEE GO TO FOOL AROUND MACHINERY!

WHUTS TH' FUSS?

HOLD ER NEWT SHES AREARIN!

1. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

2. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

3. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

4. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

5. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

6. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

7. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

8. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

9. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

10. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

11. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

12. A man is walking down a street. A woman is walking towards him. She is carrying a bag. He is looking at her. She is looking at him. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other. They are both looking at each other.

ROTARY SEES WILD WEST IN FILM SHOWING

Pleasantly Entertained at Weekly Luncheon at McKenzie Hotel

Rotarians were pleasantly entertained at their weekly luncheon today at McKenzie hotel with a movie show depicting many thrilling scenes from the Pendleton, Ore. Roundup, one of the most spectacular of all western riding events. Through the courtesy of Fred Copelin who presided as "operator" with "Irrepressible Harry" Wagner at the piano, the films were available to the local club. Incidental music by the rough-and-ready quartet helped to intensify western atmosphere of the production. A rising vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Copelin for his contribution.

Some new songs, not passed by the censorship committee, were tried out "on the spot" and "whizzers".

Arthur Belster of the January program committee presided. Two birthdays were celebrated. J. J. MacLeod's natal day was fittingly commemorated by Phil Meyer and a quart of milk was the gift with the advice "to fatten" up. Hank Halversen's birthday was noted by Lew Craswell and the gift a book, entitled "Courtship and Matrimony."

Prof. Savvig secured the cooperation of the club in promoting the participation of the local high school in the National Essay and Oratorical contest. Bismarck Rotarians will defray the expense of sending the winner to the elimination contest at Fargo.

Rotarians were urged to support the first debate to be held here next Tuesday when Bismarck meets Steele. This is a new feature of high school activities and the earnest support of Bismarckers is urgently solicited. Guests of honor were A. W. Johnson, Jamestown; John Christianson, New Salem; L. R. Waldron, Fargo and Mr. Olson, Fargo, both of the Agricultural College.

BIG CROWD AT INSTITUTE

Rialto Theater Filled For Speaking Program

The Rialto theater was well filled this afternoon for the educational program held in connection with the corn show.

Students of the Bismarck Business College, who will be in business in North Dakota in the future, marched to the theater in a body to listen to the addresses by Prof. L. R. Waldron, N. D. Agricultural College; F. E. Kelso, superintendent, Anderson Field Station, South Dakota, here as a personal representative of Secretary Wallace of the United States Department of Agriculture; John Christianson, New Salem, and Commissioner of Immigration Joseph DeVore.

Dr. John Lee Coulter is scheduled to speak tomorrow afternoon at 2 p. m.

The Bismarck high school senior class was dismissed today long enough to permit the students to visit the corn show and view the exhibits under competent instruction.

Science Gives Car Credit For Great Discovery

Success of Asiatic Expedition Impossible Without Motor Equipment, Says Leader.

WORK OF DODGE BROTHERS
"CARS TERMED PHENOMENAL"

Accomplished 30-Year Task in Two Years by Penetrating Roadless Interior of Unknown Land; Fossils 10 Million Years Old Brought Back.

The startling discoveries of the Third Asiatic Expedition, with their priceless contributions to science and commerce, would have been impossible without motor cars.

That is the blunt, unequivocal statement of Roy Chapman Andrews, leader of the expedition which returned recently from a two-year search of innermost Mongolia, with the largest and most valuable collection of fossils ever brought into the United States.

When the party started from China Mr. Andrews was told that camels and horses were the only means of transportation known in the interior of the country he was about to penetrate. To cross the Gobi desert alone was a feat to test the endurance of the most rugged car, and had

Relieves Rheumatism

Musterole loosens up stiff joints and drives out pain. A client, white cement, made with oil of mustard, it usually brings relief as soon as you start to rub it on.

It does all the good work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster, without the blister. Doctors and nurses often recommend its use.

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

35¢ 65¢ in jars & tubes; hospital size, $3

MUSTEROLE
WILL NOT BLISTER
BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER

COURT ORDERS MOTHER FORSAKE CAREER TO REGAIN HER LOST SON

MRS. MARGARET JONES, AND BOBBY.

By NEA Service

Indianapolis, Jan. 23.—"Give up stage and you may have your baby," decreed Circuit Judge H. O. Chamberlain.

And, although she is but 21, Mrs. Margaret Jones, here, chose Bobby, 2, in preference to assured career. Several months ago Mrs. Jones did not contest her husband's divorce suit.

been accomplished but seldom. To ford the streams and cross the hilly, rootless wastes of the unknown land beyond the desert, however, was considered an utter impossibility.

Nevertheless, Mr. Andrews had made up his mind. "Dodge Brothers rule," prevented them from contributing their cars to our expedition," he said, "but I felt that I had to have them, anyhow, even though numerous other manufacturers had offered to supply me. I had penetrated Mongolia before and I knew just about what would be required of a car."

"So I bought three Dodge Brothers cars at full list price in Peking—one touring car and two 4-ton commercial. I tried every insurance company in China. I believe, in an effort to insure the cars before starting the trip. They only laughed at me, even when I explained that I intended for nothing except insurance against total destruction. We had our mechanics and service parts and knew that we could survive any accident except annihilation. But the insurance companies said no car could get in, much less get out, so we traveled at our own risk."

"What those cars did was a revelation to the whole eastern world. We crossed rivers, plunged in and out of deep ruts and dumped over boulders until we thought everything must shake to pieces. But those cars kept going. Terribly overloaded, they did the impossible day after day. Sometimes we chased wild animals across the roadless plains at high speed. I remember once the speedometer was registering 40 miles an hour when we were in hot pursuit of a drove of wild asses. One would think no car could survive such abuse, as the plains were naturally full of ruts and mounds. But we drove them back to China, after 10,000 miles of this sort of usage, and sold them without difficulty for more than the price of three new Dodge Brothers cars in the United States.

Farmers Plan Suit To Regain Bank Note Cash

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 23.—Several farmers in various sections of the state will immediately institute action against Ole Engen, as receiver of the Scandinavian American bank, and F. B. Wood to recover $92,000, which they claim due on notes given for an increase in the capital stock of the bank.

Announcement of this suit was made by Attorney Wm. Langer, counsel for a number of the farmers, following the dismissal of the case of F. B. Wood, trustee, vs. Ole Engen, receiver.

When Judge Chas. E. Wolfe of Wahpeton, called the Wood-Engen case for trial in Fargo, Mr. Langer moved that it be dismissed without prejudice to the rights of others on the ground that Mr. Wood was in reality one of the defendants. It was alleged that he held 167 shares of stock in the Scandinavian American bank at the time he took the notes for the increase of the capital stock. F. R. Lovell, counsel for Engen, objected to the motion but it was granted.

In the new case, the plaintiffs will allege, it was announced, that the notes were signed with the express agreement that they never would be used until the stock was issued and delivered and, further, that the stock never was issued to them.

Plaintiffs in the case are: Charles Scheel of Edgley; Joe Kout of Jud; J. E. Brady of Jud; M. H. Johnson of Hillsboro; B. K. Benson of Fargo; A. H. Carrow of Edgley, Fred Bork of Jud and F. B. Peek of Manong.

STORE ROBBED

Williston, N. D., Jan. 23.—Thieves broke into the Weather Wax Jewelry store here and carried away goods estimated to be worth $800.

The loot consisted of watches, some fountain pens, bracelets, and the husband got Bobby. When the mother returned from a concert tour in the east she petitioned for her baby.

The court then informed her of the conditions under which she could regain the youngster.

"My career meant much to me. But my baby means more, infinitely more."

Entrance to the store was made through the rear window and this directed suspicion on two men who were seen the previous day loitering in an alley near the store.

The chief of police, from descriptions given, recognized the men as two he had under surveillance for several days. When he called at the place where they had been staying he found that they had left for the east and neighboring points a few hours before.

SAYS LIGNITE BRIQUETTING IS FEASIBLE

St. Paul, Jan. 23.—Lignite coal fields of North Dakota, which contain over a hundred trillion tons, can supply the United States with fuel for 200 years, said Dr. Hans Holzworth, German inventor and combustion engineer, during an address on "the progress of making lignite briquets," before an audience of St. Paul engineers and financiers.

Dr. Holzworth, illustrating his lecture with lantern slides, said he had been investigating the North Dakota lignite fields for some time and is convinced the vast supply, briquetted by a process of distillation by rotary kilns, can be marketed and by-products extracted can be disposed of at large profits.

It is intended, he said, that the first plant be erected at Richardson, N. D., where the Lignite Coal & Byproducts Corporation of Delaware, controls vast coal lands. The plant will be equipped with kilns built by Thyssen and Company of Germany, inventors and patentees of the Lignite briquetting process.

"North Dakota coal needs carbonizing and briquetting to make it a commercial product," he said. He declared large power stations built on the lignite fields can supply cheap power to industries and in time transform North Dakota from an agricultural to a manufacturing state.

PETITIONS FOR JOHNSON OUT

Fargo, Jan. 24.—(By the A. P.)—Petitions for the nomination of Senator Hiram Johnson of California as candidate for the endorsement of the Republicans of North Dakota for nomination at the Cleveland convention were placed in circulation in this state today, according to an announcement from headquarters today. A similar petition bearing the name of Calvin Coolidge was placed in circulation several days ago.

If this Signature

C. W. Grove

is NOT on the Box, it is NOT

BROMO QUININE

(There is no other "BROMO QUININE")

The Laxative and Tonic Effect of Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets is very beneficial to the system.

The World's most popular remedy for Colds, Grip and Influenza. Price 30 Cents

S. W. DERRICK TAKES THREE MONTHS TRIP

W. H. Corbett to be Acting
Superintendent of Soo
During Absence

S. W. Derrick, Superintendent of the Soo line, has been granted three months leave, and goes to Los Angeles, Calif. on a vacation.

W. H. Corbett, trainmaster from Gladstone, Michigan, has been appointed superintendent in Mr. Derrick's place during his leave. Mr. Corbett is not unknown to the business men of this city, as he was the first chief train dispatcher in charge of the Missouri River Division, coming into Bismarck twenty-three years ago when the line was completed to Bismarck. Serving here some four years in this capacity, he was transferred to Glenwood, Minnesota, in like position, and served there until completion of the line Glenwood to Winnipeg, when he was made trainmaster of Wisconsin and Peninsular division and served there until his recent promotion.

Mr. Corbett expressed himself as greatly pleased with the growth Bismarck has made since his departure and while he knew from reports progress had been made he little thought such a vast growth and improvement had been made in the city in such a short time.

FALCONER BOY GETS $1,500

Damages Awarded in Personal Injury Case

A jury in district court returned a verdict for $1,500 in favor of Robert Falconer, young son of James Falconer, against Louisa Gruenburg, growing out of injuries sustained by the boy when struck by the Gruenburg automobile in 1921. The plaintiff sued for $5,000.

A jury in the case of Martin Burgois against H. L. Hughes and Joseph Coghlan, involving about $100 in a dispute over possession of a small building, found in favor of the defendant.

In the case of L. B. Olson against William Meyers and Hans Kludsdal for damages alleged to be sustained as a result of assault and battery found in favor of the plaintiff against Meyers but not against Kludsdal. The verdict was for $200.

AMENIA GIRL IS ROOSEVELT ESSAY WINNER

Miss Edna McKenzie of Amenia was awarded first prize in the high school essay contest conducted in North Dakota by the Women's Roosevelt Memorial Association and Miss Catherine Myers of Fargo was awarded first prize in the grade school essay contest. Mrs. L. F. Crawford, chairman of the state association, announced today Mrs. C. S. Forend of Steele, county chairman for Kidder county, was voted champion county chairman because of the superior organization work in her county.

The subject of the high school essay contest was "Why Is Roosevelt House a Better Memorial than a Monument?" and the subject in the grade school contest was "Why Roosevelt Should Have a Memorial." The prize for each winner was a copy of the book, "Roosevelt in the Badlands" donated by the national memorial association.

LOCAL COMPANY INCORPORATED

Articles of incorporation filed with the Secretary of State include: North Dakota State Automobile Association, Fargo; to promote good roads, etc.; incorporators, J. F. McGinn, Fargo; Manville, Sprague, Grafton; C. O. Russell, Devils Lake; E. Bylin, Tioga; Harry Miller, Jamestown; Otis Dunham, Bismarck; G. A. Renden, Mandan; F. W. Turner, Dickinson; C. E. Danielson, Minot; E. J. Pogg, Valley City; F. A. Irish, Fargo.

Tourists Guide and Advertising Signs Co., Bismarck; capital stock $25,000; incorporators, E. E. Lycke, Grand Forks; Fred E. Davis, John Gardner Wallace, C. L. Foster, Bismarck; W. H. Machie, Mandan; A.

W. Hawkinson, H. T. Perry, Bismarck.

The Prairie States Oil and Gas Company of North Dakota; capital stock $100,000; incorporators, C. W. Rose, W. H. Davis, C. E. Blair, W. D. Hickman, Lemmon, S. D.; W. L. Smith, Bismarck.

Cosgriff and Von Sien, Fargo; capital stock $10,000; incorporators, Ed. P. Cosgriff, Geo. S. Von Sien, M. V. Cosgriff, H. B. Von Sien, Fargo.

THREE KILLED IN EXPLOSION

Boiler on Fast Train Explodes
Near Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh, Jan. 23.—The boiler of a railroad engine hauling the morning express from Pittsburgh to Cleveland over the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad exploded at Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, 23 miles west of here, this morning while the train was running 40 miles an hour. Engineer George Stark and Fireman L. Kuehler and J. E. Meide, head foreman of engines, were killed.

GIVE $5,000 TO STARVING MINN. INDIANS

St. Paul, Jan. 23.—Indian suffering from the lack of food and clothing on the White Earth Indian reservation will receive $5,000 to alleviate their sufferings through the Department of Indian Affairs, Gov. J. A. O. Preus was advised over telephone by Chas. H. Burke, Indian commissioner at Washington.

MOUNTAIN LION SEEN?

Valley City, N. D., Jan. 23.—The mountain lion, which terrorized people in the vicinity of Rogers some time ago, has evidently found a new location, according to a story published in the Griggs County Sentinel. Courier this week in which it is explained the lion has people in that vicinity staying inside during the dark hours of night and keeping

CHILDREN CRY FOR "CASTORIA"

A Harmless Substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups — No Narcotics!

Mother! Fletcher's Castoria has been in use for over 30 years to relieve babies and children of constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and, by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving natural sleep without opiates. The genuine bears signature of

Wm. H. Fletcher.

Bismarck Juvenile Band Benefit

Given by N. D. A. C.

GOLD STAR BAND

A NORTH DAKOTA INSTITUTION

Tomorrow Afternoon Thursday, January 24 and Evening
MATINEE 3:45 P. M. EVENING CONCERT 8:00 P. M.

A Concert Band of 45 Pieces

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF

DR. C. S. PUTNAM, Director of Music

FEATURING

JAMES STAMP--Trumpet

BYRON HANSON--Euphonium

AND THE

TRIUMPHAL TRUMPET TRIO

STAMP, BYERLY and DICKEY

A Two Hours Concert of Real Music HARMONY -- RYTHM -- PEP -- "GOLD STAR" STUFF

MATINEE PRICES

Students

Adults

25c

$1.00

EVENING PRICES

Lower Floor and Balcony

Gallery

$1.00

50c

Under Auspices Bismarck Club American Association of Engineers and Bismarck Association of Commerce.

Lincoln Ford Fordson

CARS-TRUCKS-TRACTORS

To the People of Bismarck and Visitors to the N. D. State Corn Show
We Will Keep

OPEN HOUSE

Tuesday - Wednesday - Thursday

Special features each evening including the World Famous Pendleton, Oregon Round-Up Moving Pictures. We are displaying all the New Model cars featuring the Tudor Sedan equipped with

Ford

FIRESTONE BALLOON TIRES

COPELIN MOTOR COMPANY

201 Broadway.

Bismarck, N. D.

Europe now contains 15 monarchs and 10 presidents.

Studying hard?
Boys and Girls need
SCOTT'S EMULSION

For Cold Weather Starting

Threaded Rubber Insulation gives a battery more "punch"—starting a cold engine more quickly.

With all their advantages, Willard Threaded Rubber Batteries are not expensive. We have them as low as Willard Wood-Insulated batteries as low as

CORWIN MOTOR COMPANY

Willard STORAGE BATTERIES